The Siegfried Line Scouted

These pictures were taken by Royal Air Force reconnaissance fliers along the western front. They show the nature of the Siegfried Line as not a trench system but a series of concrete blockhouses with wire entanglements and anti-tank barriers. Construction materials are transported on a light railway. When grass grows over disturbed earth, emplacements will be hard to locate from the air. The pictures show: (a) an area near Saarlautern. The key is as follows: (a) Town of Earlsfort; (b) slag heap; (c) Siegfried Line. Area of concrete emplacement with intercommunication by buried cable; (d) Railway; (e) River Saar.

This picture taken near Saarbrücken, shows work in progress on the German fortifications. The key to important points in the picture is as follows: (a) Barracks; (b) slag heap; (c) to (e), Anti-tank obstacles; (f) to (h) Wire; (e) Turning point; (f) Blockhouses under construction; (g) Light railway; (h) Tree plantation.

Death Toll 108 In Nazi Attack On British Ship

LONDON (CP)—The battered Ss. Domala today was at an undisclosed English port, 108 persons dead or missing after a bombing by a German plane in the English channel. A Heinkel bomber swooped on the 8,441-ton liner with bombs and machine-gun fire. The death toll was the heaviest aboard a merchantman since the Canada-bound Athenia was torpedoed with a death list of 113 on the first day of the war, September 3.

It was disclosed a German plane bombed and machine-gunned the Dutch freighter Jonge Willem before the steamship went to the aid of the Domala. It was believed to have been the same plane that attacked the British vessel.

A crewman said the plane dived on the Jonge Willem and dropped a bomb which fell about 20 feet away and also attacked the ship with machine guns. There were no casualties.

The attack, the first by a German warplane in the English Channel, was made about dawn Saturday.

The Domala, set afire and her bridge shattered, was the first big British passenger ship victim of German warplanes. Her captain was killed as he gave orders from the bridge. Of 301 persons aboard, 20 Britons and 88 Indian sailors were feared lost. The Domala carried 253 Lascars being repatriated from internment in German ports. She sailed from Antwerp, Belgium.

Nine Britons and 42 Indians were rescued by a Netherlands ship and landed at a south coast English port. The others were rescued by British ships.

THOUGHT IT BRITISH
One eye-witness said the bomber carried full navigation lights, and the Domala's crew mistook it for a British plane until it dropped to 40 feet above the ship and released the first bomb. The Admiralty said four bombs were dropped, and three scored hits.

"We were blazing from stem to stern in 20 minutes," the eye-witness said. "After the first bomb, the plane sprayed the deck with machine guns."

Another survivor said the passengers and crew were attacked after they had fled from the ship.

"I was in a small lifeboat with 15 others," he said. "Every few seconds the plane dived and poured lead into our sides."

Storm in East U.S.
NEW YORK (AP)—A gusty sleet storm beat over the middle Atlantic and New England states today, crippling traffic and disrupting routine in dozens of communities as trees, telephone and power lines broke under the weight of steadily accumulating ice.

The American Museum of Natural History this afternoon described it as "the worst ice storm" in the history of the eastern United States.

Swiss Remobilize
BERNE (AP)—The Swiss high command tonight ordered more than 60,000 frontier troops and territorial reserves to rejoin their units three days ahead of a scheduled remobilization of the nation's armed forces.

The order followed reports of German troop movements opposite the Swiss frontier.

Dead Man Unknown
VANCOUVER (CP)—Police today sought to identify the body of an elderly man who collapsed and died at a downtown intersection yesterday. Only clue to his identity were the initials J. H. S. in the hatband.

Edmonton Lowers Fees
EDMONTON (CP)—Business license reductions ranging from 33 to 50 per cent have been ordered by Hon. E. C. Manning, Minister of Trade and Industry. It was announced this afternoon.

The reductions apply to the photo finishing industry, commercial printing, cleaning and dyeing, barbers, and the automotive industry.

Jail for Bigamist
GREELEY, Colo. (AP)—Thomas J. Wilson, 51-year-old W.P.A. worker who admitted he maintained two wives within a few miles of each other on a salary of $61 a month, this afternoon was sentenced to two years in prison and fined $250 on a charge of bigamy.

Shenandoah, Pa., Settles in Cave-in Of Old Coal Mine
SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP)—Homes and business houses in the most heavily populated section of Shenandoah sank as much as 20 inches today in cave-ins of the honeycomb of old anthracite diggings which undermine the town.

The ground settled slowly for eight or 10 hours, bulging and cracking walls and leaving earthquake-like fissures in the paved streets of a 16-block area.

This afternoon observers saw no further signs of sinking. Residents who had fled their homes at the pre-dawn alarm of a fire siren ventured back. City officials said none would be without shelter and none had been injured. They estimated property damage would reach $1,000,000.

Seven hours after the subsidence first was detected many buildings had settled 18 inches and widening cracks streaked across factories and sturdier brick structures.

Many homes were split in two. Gas and water mains were broken. Street pavements caved in.

Women sobbed hysterically among the hundreds of spectators who looked on from safe areas outside the section police had roped off. Many saw their houses collapse.

After the confusion of the first scare, police said residents of the area might go back to their homes or carry out possessions "if they wanted to."

QUARTER OF TOWN
The affected section includes almost a quarter of the town of 21,000 population. Damage was reported within a block of the intersection of Main and Centre streets—the heart of the town. The sinking extended in varying degree from Main Street, principal north-south street, and north from one street above Centre Street, which runs east and west.

State police from all nearby stations were summoned to help the Shenandoah police force maintain order and patrol the endangered section.

Telephone service to Shenandoah from nearby communities in the anthracite section was disrupted.

U-BOAT BOMBED; BELIEVED SUNK
LONDON (CP)—The Air Ministry tonight announced:

"An enemy submarine was attacked in Schilling Roads this afternoon by an aircraft of the R.A.F. and believed to have been destroyed."

The aircraft was on reconnaissance duty, when the submarine was sighted in shallow water on the surface. Four bombs were dropped, one of which registered a direct hit between the conning tower and the stern.

"After the attack the submarine was seen to be enveloped in a cloud of greyish black smoke with only the upper part of its conning tower visible above the water."

Schilling Roads are in Heligoland Light at the mouth of the river Elbe.

150,000 Workers Strike in India
BOMBAY (AP)—A strike involving more than 150,000 textile workers in some 70 mills began today in an attempt to force the employers to grant a 15 per cent wage increase to meet rising living costs.

Some 20,000 employees in 12 mills struck yesterday in anticipation of the larger strike called by the "council of action" of the provincial trades union congress.

Employers offered 10 per cent increases in accord with the majority recommendation of a conciliation board appointed by the government.

HEPBURN BANS 'CANADA AT WAR'

TORONTO (CP)—Premier Mitchell Hepburn announced this afternoon that the showing of the news film, "Canada at War," has been banned in Ontario until after the Dominion general election March 26. He said it was not definite if the film, premiered by the "March of Time," would be shown even then.

Mr. Hepburn, who made the announcement as chairman of the appeal board of Ontario government motion picture board of censors, claimed the review was "nothing but pure political propaganda for the Mackenzie King government."

Isolationist Wins In Australian Vote
SYDNEY (CP)—Victory of a Labor candidate in a by-election at Corio, Victoria state, a seat previously held by the government, is hailed as endorsing the party's opposition to compulsory military service and the sending of Australian troops overseas.

With less than 2,000 votes to be counted, J. J. Dedman, Labor, had 25,207 votes; J. T. Vinton Smith, United Australia (Government), had 21,735, and Dr. C. P. O'Day, Communists, 1,441.

The seat was vacated by R. G. Casey when he was appointed Australia's first minister to the United States.

The Prime Minister said the result was more influenced by local issues than criticism of Australia's war effort. He said the election "indicates the government is ahead of public opinion on the war and it was the government's duty to proceed with vigor and determination."

The result may lead to a coalition between the Government and the Country Party in order to face parliament in April.

The Government and Labor each won 29 seats in the 74-seat House of Representatives at the general election in October, 1937. The Country Party controls the other 16 seats. The Government's mandate will expire this year.

AGAINST OVERSEAS FORCE
The Australian government "needs reconstruction and should enunciate a clearer, bolder war policy in order to teach the people the danger of the isolationist fallacy," said the Melbourne Herald.

This result, the Herald said, "must not be dismissed as due to minor issues." The electorate, it added, "voted for Labor's war policy, which would leave on others the burden of Australia's protection."

The Labor Party vigorously opposed dispatch of Australian troops overseas and any kind of military compulsion, maintaining that the strong defence of Australia and economic aid to the Allies were the best contributions the Dominion could make to defeating Germany.

John Curtin, leader of the Labor Party, said an obligation now rested on Prime Minister Menzies to respect the "significant decision" at Corio. He held Labor's war aims had been endorsed.

A general election is due to be held this fall. Labor's by-election victory now makes it the largest party in the House of Representatives, with 30 seats against 28 for Mr. Menzies' United Australia Party.

The balance of power is held by the Country Party with 16 seats. The group, while at odds with the United Australia Party since the death of Prime Minister Joseph Lyons, gives the government sufficient support in parliamentary divisions to ensure its continuance in office.

Jailed Fliers Escape
BRUSSELS (AP)—Three German aviators, whose capture in their grounded plane resulted in Belgium's invasion alarm January 13, escaped from prison at Huy the night of March 2. It was disclosed this evening.

The Germans tried twice to burn their papers when the plane was forced down but Belgian soldiers saved them. Reliable sources said that among the papers was a "bulletin of attack," which was a standard military document outlining troop actions.

Belgium immediately recalled all troops on leave and entered a new phase of mobilization. Families were evacuated from certain frontier zones.

Joe Newberger Leads Field in Empress Golf

With an entry list of 185-130 men and the remainder women—the 12th annual Empress golf tournament opened today on two Victoria links. The men are playing at Colwood, while the ladies are at Oak Bay for the first three days of their tournament, following which they will swing over to Colwood.

Early starters today went off in a heavy rain, but the weather cleared at noon and conditions for play were not bad. Both courses were heavy, and it was not expected many of the players would report in with low scores.

The tournament has attracted players from many parts of Pacific Northwest and eastern Canada, and keen matches are looked for before the new handicap champions are crowned Saturday.

Joe Newberger, Seattle, was leader in the men's qualifying round at Colwood with a net 67. He posted a gross card of 81.

Two strokes off the leader was J. R. Angus of Victoria. Jimmy Hogan, Jasper, Alta., Canadian junior champion in 1938, was next with a 70. Hogan, playing from a two handicap, posted a smart round of 72 despite the wet.

Ross Hocking and Ernie Brachet, the latter last year's medalist, shared fourth place with net scores of 71. J. C. Bell, Calgary, Brian Hunnings and Lee Stiel, Seattle, tied 72.

The 32 low net scores will qualify for the championship with match play opening tomorrow. The 16 players with the low gross scores will form the championship flight in the men's open event. The open final will be played Friday and the handicap final on Saturday.

Early scores at Colwood follow: J. Newberger, Seattle, 67; J. R. Angus, 69; J. Hogan, Jasper, Alta., 70; R. Hocking, 71; E. Brachet, 71; Lee Stiel, Seattle, 72; J. C. Bell, Calgary, 72; B. Hunnings, 72; J. Deane-Freeman, 74; Bill Forst, Vancouver, 75; G. H. Parson, Seattle, 78; J. H. Wilson, 78; J. Simpson, 78; F. Thompson, Vancouver, 78; G. A. Mills, 79; F. Wright, Seattle, 79; C. P. Rutherford, 81; R. Whaley, Seattle, 82; R. H. B. Ker, 86.

Early scores from Oak Bay in the women's qualifying round follow: Mrs. S. D. Horsford, 82; Mrs. J. C. Baldwin, Seattle, 100; Mrs. A. C. Stickley, 96; Mrs. A. Barton, 93; Miss M. Todd, 83; Mrs. H. R. Plummer, Vancouver, 93; Mrs. A. Dowell, 98; Mrs. C. R. Bunn, Red Deer, Alta., 95; Miss N. Wilson, 86; Mrs. G. E. Bronaugh, Portland, 86; Mrs. J. McIlraith, 82; Mrs. G. Lyons, Vancouver, 81; Mrs. W. P. Bowden, 97; Mrs. J. Macfarlane, 92; Mrs. A. Desbrisay, 89; Mrs. Z. Huse, 96.

Furlough With Pay For Many Soldiers
Men of Canada's army in home barracks and forts, who have had six months' service, may now be given two weeks' furlough with pay, Brigadier C. V. Stockwell, D.O.C., at Work Point has been advised by National Defence Department headquarters at Ottawa.

"We hope to give all the men a chance, but it must be remembered this is a privilege, not a right," Brigadier Stockwell said.

The furlough, orders from Ottawa said, will be granted at the discretion of the officers commanding the various military districts across Canada. Officers and men will be affected equally.

"We cannot upset things too much, of course, but we hope to satisfy all the men in this matter," the brigadier said.

Many of the soldiers stationed about Victoria have now been six months in the Canadian Army Service Force. They were called up late in August when the European situation began to turn towards war. A large number, however, have joined since that time and are therefore not eligible to the two weeks' furlough with pay.

Labor Supports War
CARDIFF, Wales (CP)—Ninety-seven thousand votes in favor of the British Labor Party's support of the war effort were registered yesterday at a south Wales miners' congress. A Communist-sponsored resolution calling for an active campaign on the part of Labor to bring cessation of war received 30,000 votes.

Italian Coal Ships Sail to Challenge British Blockade

ROTTERDAM (CP-Havas)—Five Italian ships loaded with German coal consigned to Italy sailed today and nine others now taking on cargo are expected to leave before the end of the week.

Will Be Stopped By British Fleet
LONDON (CP)—British officials said tonight that Italian cargo ships which have sailed from Rotterdam with German coal for Italy "will be stopped."

They said Italy had been given three months in which to arrange for alternative sources of coal supplies and that no further extension would be granted.

Relations Endangered, Rome Declares
ROME (AP)—Italy has told Great Britain that "economic and political relations" of Rome and London are endangered.

The Italian note of protest, delivered to the British embassy and published today, went beyond a formal protest against the Admiralty's order to halt coal shipments from Germany. It struck at contraband control generally, charged that interception of mail at sea was a violation of the Hague Convention of 1907.

The submission of all maritime traffic of nonbelligerent countries to contraband control, the note said, "is manifestly abusive."

Italy took exception to the blockade of German exports because it "profoundly disturbs the mechanism of international exchange, suppresses sources of supply and reduces the possibilities of production of nonbelligerent states," and particularly protested against the "indignity and gravity" of British blockade.

"The British government," the note said, "knows that the coal in question meets an indispensable need in the life and labor of the Italian people."

Stating the blockade "is of the kind to disturb and compromise economic and political relations established between Italy and Great Britain by the agreements of April 16, 1938," it added:

"The Fascist government, while renewing its formal protest, intends to mark from this moment data and factual elements of the situation with regard to responsibility inherent in the future development of same."

COUNTER PROTEST
Britain is reported reliably to have made a counter protest over the way the matter has been handled in the Fascist press, and to have complained against insinuations that the blockade was an attempt to exert economic pressure on Italy to make her agree to exchange armaments for British coal.

Obert Farinacci, Fascist grand council member, called the British blockade "reaction of our refusal to sell arms to England" and charged that Britain "hopes to oblige our country to buy coal from Welsh mines."

Britain Cool to Italy's Protests
LONDON (CP)—Foreign Office circles indicated today Italy's protest against Britain's stoppage of German coal shipments would meet a cool reception here.

"It cannot be assumed that we can waive rights and international interests which are maintained under international law," one British source said.

It was reported in authoritative quarters that "the most rapid and careful consideration" would be given the Italian note, and that an effort would be made "to be as accommodating as possible."

At the same time, these sources said, it would be unwise to believe that Britain would retreat from her original position in view of "unrestricted warfare by Germany against the Allies and neutrals."

The foreign office said that although no negotiations were in progress now for a new Anglo-Italian financial and commercial agreement, the British committee still is in Rome.

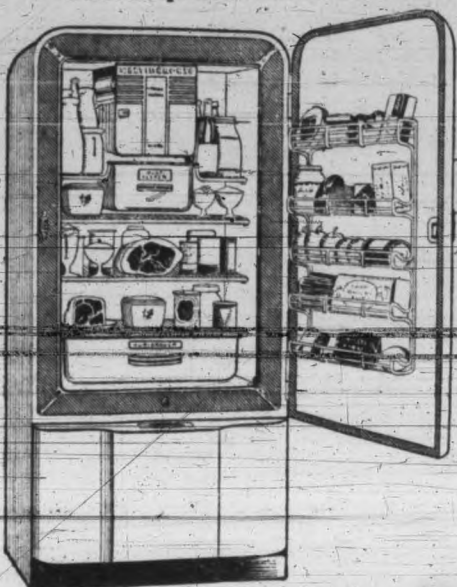

"Talks may begin at any time," an official spokesman said. "They have not broken down, but merely have been discontinued."

Foreign Office sources disclaimed knowledge of a British protest to the Italian government concerning the reception of the Fascist press to the note announcing the coal embargo. A British counter-protest was reported unofficially in Rome.

Finns Beat Off Russian Attacks Near Viipuri

HELSINKI (AP)—The Finnish high command announced today that its forces, fighting invading Russians almost at the gates of Viipuri, had repelled attacks aimed at the city from three sides.

The attacks were beaten back yesterday, according to the daily army communiqué, as the Russians attempted to advance across the ice of the Bay of Viipuri, at a second point between the bay and the Vuoksi River, and at a third point near Ayrappa, a few miles farther to the northeast.

As the Russians continued to pour a heavy land fire into the city, the Soviet air force backed up the attack with an aerial onslaught.

The Finns for their part said they had repelled the Russian "enemy columns and sites of assembly."

The communiqué mentioned "heavy" Russian losses in the fighting around Viipuri, but did not estimate the casualties.

On the eastern flank of the isthmus front the Finns reported heavy artillery exchanges in the Taipale sector, but made no mention of new Russian attacks.

In addition the Finns reported fighting in the Arctic region far to the north, near Petsamo, and northeast of Lake Ladoga, where they said 1,200 Russians were killed.

In the far north, the Finns said their forces had driven the Russians back about two miles from Nautsi, to which the spearhead of the Red army drive penetrated last week. Nautsi is about 60 miles southwest of Petsamo.

The communiqué said Russian warplanes had been active yesterday, supporting ground troops on the isthmus and bombing areas behind the front. Lappeenranta, about 30 miles northwest of Viipuri, was described as hardest hit.

It also announced that four Russian planes had been shot down.

Yesterday the high command announced that 1,000 Russians had been slain at Kollaa, northeast of Lake Ladoga, where their attacks were repulsed by artillery fire.

Reliable sources said the plan includes two points—that $100,000 ($445,000) be used for relief in war-stricken areas of north China and that the balance be placed under a joint Anglo-Japanese commission.

Tani and Sir Robert also discussed a compromise over the $50,000,000 in Chinese government currency impounded in banks inside the Japanese concession at Tientsin. Japanese claims to the money were one of the major points at issue in Anglo-Japanese conferences last summer over the Japanese blockade of the British and French Tientsin concessions.

Japan Calls for All Asama Nazis

TOKYO (AP)—Masayuki Tani, vice-foreign minister, demanded today the return of 12 Germans still held by Britain of the 21 seized from the Japanese liner Asama Maru, January 20.

Nine were returned to Japan last week under a compromise settlement of Japanese protests over stoppage of the ship.

The reply of British ambassador Sir Robert Craigie, to whom Tani made the demand, was not known.

Church Conference Trio Charged ON PAMPHLETS

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—A total of 52,000 pamphlets containing material of an allegedly subversive nature, said to urge support of the Communist Party in the federal election, were seized last night when Royal Canadian Mounted Police arrested two men and a woman.

In police court today, Grace Fugler, 24, Hamilton; Victor Guy, 37, and Robert Keays, 27, Toronto, were remanded one week on charges of breach of the Defence of Canada regulations.

The seizure was believed to be the largest made in Canada since the start of the war.

The pamphlets were said to be similar to those seized in Ottawa last week when three men were arrested.

The charges against those arrested here read that they had in their possession documents likely or intended to prejudice recruiting, training, discipline or administration of any of His Majesty's forces.

Lumber for U.K. Awaits Shipment

LONDON (CPJ)—Leslie Burgin, Minister of Supply, told the House of Commons "a considerable quantity of timber purchased by the government is awaiting shipment, but it is not in the public interest to give exact figures."

Mr. Burgin added he was "in constant touch with the ministry of shipping with regard to the provision of necessary ships."

Valentine Macneil, Labor, had asked what quantities of lumber had been bought abroad and how much of it still awaited shipment to the United Kingdom.

Says Manion Once Favored Conscription

CHAMBLY CANTON, Que. (CP)—Vincent Dupuis, Montreal lawyer, opened his campaign for re-election as Liberal member of Parliament for Chamby-Rouville yesterday with an assertion that Conservative Leader Manion favored conscription in a book he wrote in 1936, "Life Is an Adventure."

Mr. Dupuis, speaking at his first public meeting, said he could not reconcile Mr. Manion's anti-conscription stand with the opinions advanced in the Conservative Leader's book.

The candidate maintained that a "union government is synonymous with conscription." He said the only time all Canadians would have to rally to the colors would be when the Dominion itself was attacked.

5 Communists Perish

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Five persons are believed to have perished in a fire which destroyed the building housing the Communist headquarters for northern Sweden at Lulea yesterday.

Philip Forsberg, a Communist editor known as "Red Philip," was injured leaping to safety.

In Moscow the Soviet trade union organ Trud charged the fire was caused by an explosion planned "by British-French warmongers and their Swedish hirelings."

The paper said: "The Lulea provocation was the result of the impotent hatred of warmongers who know that the imminent downfall of White Finland means the failure of plans for conversion of Sweden into a new base for imperialist war."

Summer Welles Sees West Front

BAZEL, Switzerland (AP)—Summer Welles, United States Under-Secretary of State, en route from Berlin to Paris, saw the western front "norman's land" today.

On a European tour for President Roosevelt to gain first-hand information on European problems, Welles arrived here by train at 11 a.m., after traveling through Bavaria along the Karlsruhe-Rhine line.

From the train window, he could see both Germany's Siegfried Line on one side of the Rhine and the French Maginot Line on the other.

Welles said he planned to en-train for Paris either Tuesday or Wednesday night.

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary Cordell Hull said today he was not yet in a position to say whether Under-Secretary Summer Welles would visit the Polish government while he is in France.

PEACE FEELERS LACKED BACKING

LONDON (CP)—Richard Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, told the House of Commons today the government had received purported German "peace proposals" as published by the press on Friday, but he said there was no evidence they were authentic.

The government had received them through the Marquess of Tavistock, who Mr. Butler said was not acting "in any way" on behalf of the government.

Mr. Butler noted that Germany had repudiated the purported proposals, which, as published, suggested Germany would agree to an independent "reconstructed" Poland, freedom for re-constituted Czech and Slovak states and other terms.

Convicted Man Lived With Official

LONDON (CP)—Questions in the House of Commons brought out today that Wilhelm Solf, German student at Oxford sentenced to two months' imprisonment for photographing a damaged airplane at Abingdon, resided in the home of an employee of the Ministry of Supply.

It was further brought out that Solf's father was once the German ambassador to China. The elder Solf was described by Captain Alan Graham, Conservative, as a notorious "Anglophobe," but this was denied by Robert Peakes, Under-Secretary for Home Affairs.

Young Solf, 25, who came to Britain three years ago to study at Oxford, was sentenced February 26. Miss Marjorie N. Rows, convicted at the same hearing of instigating the illegal photographing, was given a suspended sentence of one year.

Mr. Peakes, replying to Sir Gifford Fox, Conservative, disclosed that Miss Rowe's father is employed by the Ministry of Supply as controller of machine tools and that Solf stayed at the Rowe's home.

The under-secretary added that while the photographs in question had no military value, "we are deeply concerned about the reckless and foolish disregard of the special restrictions on aliens shown by this undergraduate."

Shooting Investigated

BURNABY (CP)—B.C. police this afternoon were investigating a shooting accident at a high school carnival which cost Stewart Maxwell, 15, the sight of his right eye.

Details of the accident, which occurred Friday night, were not disclosed. The boy's mother, Mrs. James A. Maxwell, said he was standing near a booth where three air rifles had been placed for target shooting when he was struck.

BLOOD PRESSURE EASED BY EXTRACT

By MARJORIE VAN DE WATER

BALTIMORE—Cocktails made of the extract of healthy kidneys will bring back from the point of death, patients suffering from high blood pressure, it has been discovered by Dr. Arthur Grollman of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine and Drs. Tinsley R. Harrison and John R. Williams Jr. of Vanderbilt University School of Medicine. The extract may be to patients with high blood pressure what liver is to the anemic.

Physicians are enthusiastic over this promise of a new life-saver for thousands of sufferers from high blood pressure, killer of more men and women than any other disease. Even cancer, tuberculosis and syphilis are not so destructive of human life as this condition known to physicians as hypertension.

Tried first on rats, the kidney extract brought the blood pressure of these with hypertension down to normal. On normal rats, however, there was no lowering of blood pressure, and no toxic or other objectionable effects were observed even when the dose was set at four times that taken by the rats with hypertension.

In rats in which the kidney had been cut off to produce experimental hypertension, the extract has another effect. These animals, for whom the high blood pressure was evidently a necessity condition for life, fell into a state of apathy, vomiting, staggering and finally died.

The extract is not yet ready for use as a medicine, Dr. Grollman warned physicians, until further research and testing has been made. About 12 human cases ranging in age from 36 to 60 years have already received the treatment, and have been brought out of a state of coma bordering on death when the blood pressure was brought down to a normal level.

If you are suffering from high blood pressure, don't bother to make yourself kidney stew. Eating kidneys won't lower your blood pressure, Dr. Grollman explained, because unlike rats, humans haven't a ravenous enough appetite to eat the quantity of whole kidneys necessary for the medicinal effect. And, besides, humans like their food after cooking, which would destroy the medicinal value. The extract is not difficult to take by mouth; in alcohol it is said to be quite palatable.

Apparently very similar in action to the extract used by Dr. Grollman and his associates is another substance reported for the same purpose by Dr. Irvine H. Page of the Lilly Laboratory for Clinical Research of Indianapolis City Hospital.

Renin, a substance contained in the kidney, Dr. Page has found, reacts with a substance in the blood to produce a third substance christened angiotonin. When either renin or angiotonin is injected into the blood stream, an inhibitor is liberated, and such an inhibitor also has its origin in the kidney. These inhibitors (or inhibitors) serve to contract renin and prevent or cure hypertension.

No Leap in Dark By Dominion, Says Lapointe

VANCOUVER (CP)—Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, was in Regina today following a Saturday night address in which he vigorously criticized Hon. R. J. Manion's proposed National Government.

The French-Canadian Liberal leader flew east yesterday after telling a public meeting here that the "collection of brains" which Dr. Manion proposed to gather behind him as a national government if he won the election was "the darkest blackout of the war."

"Canada is not going to make a leap in the dark. We're not going to vote for a number of ghosts," he said of the Manion plan.

Canadians had a right to know just who Dr. Manion proposed taking into his government, said the minister, who rounded out his address for an appeal for unity, defended the King government's war effort and termed the present government as the only possible truly National Administration.

Mr. Lapointe said he had heard some sponsors of a National Government suggest it would be the best way for Parliament to adopt unpopular war measures. He declared that was the main reason why he opposed such a form of government, adding: "We do not want anything which the people do not want."

Mr. Lapointe declared neither the British nor French leaders had seen fit to form National Governments when the war began and said there was no need for one in Canada.

The Justice Minister defended the record of Hon. Iain MacKenzie who was moved from the Defence Ministry to the Ministry of National Health and Pensions shortly after the outbreak of war.

Provincial Relations
Premier T. D. Pattullo, who introduced Mr. Lapointe, said he considered the report of the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial relations "secondary only to the war."

"This matter will not be allowed to die for the very simple reason that regardless of the action of any individual, the economic conditions surrounding the relationship of the provinces and the Dominion will compel definite action," he said. It was in British Columbia's best interest to retain the present government so final determination of these questions could be negotiated.

Mr. Pattullo paid tribute to Prime Minister Mackenzie King for playing a leading part "in the shaping of the destiny of this country," especially in the sphere of intra-Commonwealth and international relations.

Liberal Speakers Launch Attacks

By the Canadian Press

Switching from defensive tactics to a more aggressive attack, government speakers during the week-end concentrated on an offensive against Hon. R. J. Manion's National government.

During the first phase of the Dominion election campaign, Liberal cabinet ministers generally based their electoral appeals on outlines of the government's war record; but there are signs now that national government will be fought more vigorously in the remaining three weeks. One week from today will be official nomination day for the March 26 voting.

Hon. C. G. Power, Postmaster-General, spoke at Neepawa, Man., and opposed national government. At Oak, Sask., Hon. I. G. Gardiner, Agriculture Minister, warned against placing in power those without legislative experience.

The national chairman of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, M. J. Coldwell, said at Tyndall, Man., that he would refuse to enter a national government and he was sure his party would maintain its independence. However, there might be policies advanced by such a government which would command C.C.F. support.

Mr. Coldwell said his party opposed war, "but now that Canada is in it we must do all we can to help the Allies win."

He declared that effective conscription could be introduced in Canada without any new legislation for there is a Militia Act still on the statute books that would make it possible.

Before a Belleville, Ont., audience, Dr. Manion enunciated the traditional Conservative policy of protective tariffs and said Canada needs moderate tariffs, sufficient to protect the home market and the Canadian worker. The farmer needs protection as well as industry, he added.

Passion Music

The Victoria Choral and Orchestra Union, directed by its conductor, Stanley Bulley, will sing the "St. John Passion of Bach" in Christ Church Cathedral on March 12.

Philip Watts of Vancouver will again sing the bass part which is allotted to the character of Christ; his fine performance in the same part two years ago will remain as one of the highlights in the city's musical experiences. James Oakman of Victoria will sing the narrative portion of the gospel allotted to the evangelist. The Cathedral boy chorists have the two reflective soprano solos to sing in addition to the difficult soprano parts of the choruses. The melodies of the chorales are not Bach's own, but their appeal is intensified by the matchless harmonizations of the master. The inspired text is made all the more enduring by the inspired treatment it has in Bach's inspired music.

While this is the second performance of the work within two years, it is doubtful if a further performance will be given for some years, and the community will do well to seize the opportunity to be present. Admission to the Cathedral is possible by ticket only, obtainable from members of the union, Fletcher Bros., Spencer's Music Department, and Terry's.

British Shoot Down One of Own Planes

LONDON (CP)—A British plane was shot down at the week-end in mistake by three Royal Air Force fighters, which mistook it for a German bomber.

One eyewitness told of seeing the fighters circling around the plane, which he described as "a blue and green" craft.

"Suddenly," he said, "there was a burst of machine-gun fire and I saw smoke coming from the plane. A moment later one of the wings caught fire and then the other."

"The whole plane became enveloped in flames and began to fall to pieces. The tail dropped off and the bomber crashed in open farmland."

Easterners New Ski Champions

BANFF, Alta. (CP)—Viatore Cousineau of Estevan, Que., and Conrad Delisle, of Quebec, captured the open and closed all-around men's Dominion ski championships, respectively, as the 1940 tournament closed here last night with the naming of 24 titlists.

Miss Dorothy Michaels of St. Margaret's, Que., and Miss Eleanor Boyle, 14-year-old Lake Louise girl, were crowned queens of the senior and junior ladies' divisions while the other major winner was H. Gourlay of Banff who coped three of the four junior men's championships.

Only one of three 1939 champions entered in all divisions defended his titles. Gault Gillespie of Montreal kept his open and closed, cross-country crowns by negotiating the 11-mile run Thursday in 1 hour 41 minutes and 11 seconds. Punch Bott of Montreal, 1939 men's downhill closed champion, and Louis Georges of Owen Sound, Ont., 1939 open and closed men's slalom winner, were knocked from the top rung. Importance of Y.M.C.A. war service activities on both the home and battle fronts was stressed at Ottawa by Dr. Sidney E. Beaton (right) of Montreal, just returned to Canada after being overseas with the first Canadian division. During his visit to Great Britain and France Major Beaton surveyed the needs for "Y" services with the Canadian forces and the appeal to be launched in April will be based on his report. Left is R. S. Hosking, general secretary of the National Council, from Toronto, who reported to the convention on the varied activities of "Y" branches throughout the Dominion.

MUCK, MUSICIAN, DIES IN GERMANY

STUTTGART, Germany (AP)—Dr. Karl Muck, 80, celebrated interpreter of Wagnerian music at the Bayreuth festival and former conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, died today.

Twice Dr. Muck was conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra: From 1906 to 1908 and then again from 1912 to 1918. The anti-German sentiment prevailing in the United States after America's entry into the World War made him the target of many bitter attacks, especially when he conducted the Boston Symphony concerts in Carnegie Hall, New York.

When Dr. Muck's lack of tact led to his internment as an enemy alien in 1918, one of his prison fellows was the German consul-general in New York. It was his daughter, Baroness von Scholley, who cared for Muck at her home in Stuttgart through his last days.

Dr. Muck was born at Wuerzburg October 22, 1859, the son of a councillor in the Bavarian government. At the age of 11 he made his debut in public as pianist at a chamber music concert and soon thereafter played first violin at symphony concerts.

At the age of 20 he made his debut as solo pianist in a Leipzig Gewandhaus concert, in the same year taking his degree as a Ph.D. He had no near relatives when he died. His wife had died in 1924 and they lost their only child when he was very young.

Our Midwinter Classic

WHEN THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE 12th Empress Midwinter Golf Tournament began their quest of the Sir Edward Beatty and other trophies this morning they found the courses at Colwood and Oak Bay in better condition than on any former occasion in the history of this famous international golfing classic. Neither frost nor snow had disturbed either fairways or greens, while early growth already had eliminated "cuppy lies" and imparted a texture to the putting surface which is dear to every golfer's heart.

This year's event, incidentally, is worthy of special notice because the out-of-town entry list is larger than ever before. This must indeed be gratifying to the sponsors, for it has not been an easy task, excellent publicity far afield notwithstanding, to convince golfing enthusiasts in other less favored climes that we in Victoria really do play golf all the year round.

On this occasion, too, the event will serve as a tangible reminder to visitors from the United States—a goodly contingent again has come to Victoria—that their dollars will go farther than at any time in the last 20 years. We shall hope, however, they will always think in terms of the Empress Midwinter Tournament at this time of year and continue to honor us with their presence and good fellowship.

Rattling the Skeleton

ONCE AGAIN OUR OLD FRIEND THE "adequate tariff" has been trotted out and given an airing. National Conservative Leader R. J. Manion led it by the hand down at Belleville in high-protectionist Ontario on Saturday night. We are not told whether the moth balls bounced on the platform to remind the worthy Doctor that the Canadian people interred the Conservative conception of a "proper tariff policy" in 1935 with fitting and unmistakable obsequies. Are we to assume that the oppositionist chief is so hard-pushed for material with which to assail the present government's war effort that he must pull this crumbling skeleton from the dark depths of its cupboard?

Resurrection of the tariff question, however, will amuse government speakers and will by no means please that section of the high-protectionist press which, like Dr. Manion, a little more than a year ago was accusing Mr. Mackenzie King of "selling out to the United States," and freely predicted that the new trade treaty which went into effect on January 1, 1939, was almost the beginning of Canada's economic end. But let us see how Dr. Manion handled the musty old skeleton in at Belleville. This is part of the Canada Press report of his speech: "Tariffs did not mean increased prices, he assured a vociferous meeting of 1,200 in Belleville Collegiate Institute. The true purpose of tariffs was protection. He believed if prices were raised under the protection of tariffs, then the tariffs should 'come off.' In 1930 the Bennett government had increased tariffs only after it obtained assurances from industry that if such protection were given, prices would not be increased—and only one manufacturer went back on his word."

This is very late in the day to tell the people of Canada that tariffs do not increase prices—and expect them to believe it. It is a less convincing argument still when Dr. Manion follows such an assertion with the intimation that the true purpose of tariffs is protection. One would have thought the leader of the opposition at this stage would hesitate to employ such a palpable contradiction in terms. Of course tariffs increase the price to the consumer. Of course tariffs are intended to protect; if they do not, the term is a complete misnomer. The consumer must pay the difference between the price of the imported commodity and the price charged for the protected article.

When Dr. Manion discusses the tariff, the need for a "proper tariff policy," it should be remembered that he was one of the bitterest critics of the new Canadian-United States trade treaty 18 months ago. What are the facts? In the full calendar year of 1938, Canada sold to the neighboring republic goods to the value of $278,500,000 and imported in return goods valued at $424,700,000. In 1939, the first full year of the treaty's operation, our imports from the United States were valued at $496,800,000 and our exports reached a total of $389,700,000. Here is an increase of $183,300,000 in 12 months! These official figures furnish their own commentary on Dr. Manion's speech at Belleville.

Dr. Manion's "Ghosts"

VERY PROPERLY DID RT. HON. Ernest Lapointe tell a Vancouver audience on Saturday night that the people of Canada have a right to know just whom Dr. Manion proposes to include in a national government which he promises to form if he should be elected on March 26. The Minister of Justice sees no compulsion to the electors in the opposition leader's suggestion that they vote for "a number of ghosts" and, presumably, leave the rest to him.

The Canadian people, however, are not victims of the slavish practice of buying a "pig in a poke." There is inherent in their mental calculation a little of the Missouriian philosophy. This "collection of brains" which Dr. Manion appears to imply he has catalogued should take human form; most assuredly should Canadians know for whom it is asked they vote on March 26. If he is not in a position to give names to these "brains," if his national government is no more than a figment of his imagination and to be spoken of as an abstract proposal, he will be playing fair with the people of this country only if he says so quite frankly. On the other hand, Mr. King makes no bones about his proposal; he asks the voters to endorse his government on its record. If they do not, there is little he can do about it; but he is not indulging in conjuring tricks to catch votes.

Of course it is quite possible that some Canadians, remember what Dr. Manion said at a Conservative picnic at Port Stanley, Ont., last July 26, about a national government. He then described such an administration in Canada as "a step along the path to socialist government by a shadowy coalition of third parties." Will the opposition leader remove some of the "shadow" from his "best brains" in the country?

Allies Determined

IT WILL BE UNFORTUNATE IF BRITAIN'S decision to prevent German coal from reaching Italy should strain the hitherto tolerably agreeable relations between the British and Italian governments. Nor is it surprising that Rome has protested to London in what are described as stern terms. And we are told that Downing Street has voiced its disapproval of the manner in which the Fascist press has dealt with the matter. Robert Farinacci's Fascist newspaper, incidentally, describes British policy as a "reaction of our refusal to sell arms to England," charging, at the same time, that Britain "hopes to oblige our country to buy coal from Welsh mines."

Italy's relationship with Nazi Germany is naturally causing Premier Mussolini a good deal of difficulty. He and Hitler, not so very long ago, were threatening Great Britain and France with all sorts of dire things as the axis grew in strength. The two dictators exchanged official visits and showed one another their armed might. And if Munich to some extent has been wiped off the British and French calendar of unfortunate events, the part which the Nazi Fuehrer and the Italian dictator played in the ancient Bavarian city toward the promotion of the present state of affairs in Europe is still indelibly inscribed on the record.

What has to be borne in mind by the axis partner which prefers to continue to spar for position is the fact that Great Britain and France are at war with Nazi Germany and propose to leave nothing to chance in their plans to remove Hitlerism and all it connotes. If Italy finds it politic to hinder that business, no matter in what form, the Allies will not deviate from their rigid intentions.

Too Vague

CALGARY SAYS DR. MANION WAS TOO vague when he outlined his fuel policy, prefacing it by saying he did "not pretend to be an authority on the subject." It was like his talk in Victoria when he attacked government acts one after another merely as "disgraceful" or "very disgraceful," without saying why or even indicating what he meant by "disgraceful." Left without a definition, many suspected that his idea was probably different from the r's. Something more definite than innuendo is called for from a leader asking the country to entrust him with power.

Since his bride forsook him 53 years ago at the altar, an Iowa recluse has not uttered a word. These narrow escapes do educate a man.

Campaign Promises and Wheat

F. C. Pickwell in B.C. Financial News
Next to Aberhart's famous propagandized mirage of promised financial independence to Albertans, the favorite political game for a generation or more has been to assure prairie farmers of high prices for their wheat. How this can continue to have any influence on intelligent agrarian voters in one election after another, remains an inexplicable side-light on human psychology. Western pools and provincial governments nearly went broke trying to control world prices, through fantastic theorizing and co-operative planning. Even when backed by the federal treasury—the course of international trading was not changed from the age-old regulatory influence of supply and demand.

Dr. Manion now suggests he would like to see $1.50 a bushel sold now prevail, because $3 wheat ruled for a time during the last war. He offers nothing more original than another international conference to work out the promised solution. Canada has been sitting in on that kind of a game for many years and never won a trick, or created an upward price of any importance for our wheat. No one was more anxious to do so than Mr. Bennett and Mr. King. Some politicians enjoyed nice trips and a favored few got jobs out of it. That is all.

Dr. Manion's suggested world conference to stabilize wheat prices has since been referred to by Hon. T. A. Crerar, one-time chief of the United Grain Growers and really familiar with the grain export trade problems. He expresses surprise that a man in the doctor's position did not know that repeated world wheat conferences were held in London during the last six years. They had failed because of the insuperable difficulties of getting the various importing and exporting countries into agreement. But economic facts do not make good election campaign material and politicians are never arrested for making promises of any kind for future delivery.

The War Behind the War

The Story of the Little Man's Place in the Great Struggle.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON
ARTICLE I

EVERY CANADIAN who can remember the last one has said to himself that this is a strange war. Most Canadians have not realized yet how strange it is. We have been too busy watching the military war in Europe to see the economic war that is going on all around here at home—a war behind the war which involves every man, woman and child in the country. The strangest process that this country has ever undergone.

Most of our notions about this war at home are wrong because they are based on our experience in the last war. Many of us imagine, for example, that Canada will make a lot of money in this war. It won't. Others think we shall not contribute much to Britain. They, too, are quite wrong. Others imagine that we can somehow hand most of the cost of the war entirely on to our children. This is impossible. Others fancy that, when the war has been won, we can go back where we were when the war started. Another illusion. Others think we are rapidly going broke. They don't know the new financial strength of Canada.

WHAT IS HAPPENING in Canada today is not to be explained in a few words. It is a many-sided process, a complete reconstruction of our economic system, just as if a huge jig-saw puzzle had been taken to pieces and was being fitted together again to show an entirely new picture. You and I are the little pieces that make up the whole picture. We are going to be moved around into new positions in the puzzle.

The strangest thing in Canada today is not that this process is under way, but that so few people understand it. The politicians have been extraordinarily inarticulate on this score, being occupied with the immediate problems of practical politics. Most of them don't know anyway, and the experts who do know are not allowed to talk. Between the men who know but cannot explain, and those who can explain but do not know, the Canadian people are not getting the picture of this war as it affects their own individual lives, households and purses.

IT COMES DOWN to this: We must hold three fronts in this war. There is the military front, the financial front and the economic front. The military we can trust to the soldiers and sailors. The financial we must trust to the government. The economic we must face ourselves, every one of us.

Our first test as a nation will come on the financial front. We have the money to hold this front, if we want to, but have we the courage and good sense?

You can't answer that question until you see the government's first real war budget, but up to now it is clear that we have not begun to face the cost of the war in money. Look at it in simple figures.

In the present fiscal year the federal government budgeted for an ordinary deficit of $80,000,000 before the war started. We were not paying our war in peace times. To this was added $100,000,000 more by way of deficit at the September session of Parliament. This was to pay war costs. There you have a deficit of $180,000,000 in the 12 months ending March 31 next.

However, the government began to face this deficit by imposing large new war taxes. In the first six months these new taxes did not begin to cover the new costs of the war. They are expected only to cover our ordinary peacetime deficit. As war business grows these taxes will grow with it and may ultimately yield a maximum of $125,000,000 a year. In the meantime war cost likewise will have risen.

IN A WORD, the war is costing $375,000,000 in the first year. We are levying war taxes of $125,000,000. This is a deficit of $250,000,000 a year on the war alone, apart from the deficit we usually run in our ordinary governmental expenditures.

Or put it a still simpler way. Our ordinary federal budget in round figures is $300,000,000. We have got to find nearly $400,000,000 more, even assuming that the cost of the war does not go up. We have so far arranged to find less than a third of the new money we need. Obviously, with taxes at their present level, we have not begun to pay for the war in money.

We can discuss various means of paying for the war later on in these articles. Meanwhile every Canadian in the country is doing us (as if this solved everything) that money is only a symbol, a system of bookkeeping which tells us what amount of goods we are producing, trading and consuming. This is true so far as it goes. It is also true that you must dig down through the government's budget to get at the real facts of this war in Canada. And it is when you have dug down you find that this is a new kind of war utterly unlike the last one so far as our economic system and our individual purses are concerned.

LET US GET THIS straight. In ordinary times the purpose of an economic system is to provide as many goods as can be consumed, and to produce them with a minimum of labor. What Canada is trying to do now is to produce as many extra goods as possible, in addition to those that we can use ourselves or trade profitably in the world market—and produce them even if it means more labor for all of us and less profit. In simplest terms our main job in this war is to produce as much as we can of the things that our Allies require and to use for ourselves as little of them as we can.

There are four ways of providing these extra amounts of goods, these guns, machines, ammunition and foodstuffs needed overseas. The first, of course, is to increase production. The second is to reduce our own consumption. The third is to invest less in all activities not concerned with the war—less, for instance, in roads, public buildings and general government services. The fourth is to draw upon our existing capital.

IF THE WAR lasts long we shall do all these things. But the first step, as plainly indicated by the figures of government finance and thus at one step to pay for an increase in production and to enforce a decrease in consumption. In other words, the government will tax us to pay for making war materials and the very act of taxing us will reduce our desire and our capacity to consume luxuries.

Thus the government of Canada, whatever its political label, may be expected to impose more war taxes when Parliament meets again in May—taxes designed to increase revenues and other taxes designed merely to discourage the consumption of unnecessary articles. Probably taxes cannot be increased enough to pay the entire cost of the war as we go along, but they can pay most of it, if we have the sense to meet our problem now instead of letting it pile up as we did in the last war.

AND WHY MUST we take these Spartan measures? Why is it that we cannot actually make money on this war when we are going to be in the business of supplying goods to Britain? There are two reasons which we had better understand at the outset of this war.

The first is that we are going to sell most of our goods not at a profit, not for cash, not in exchange for other goods. We are going to sell them on credit to Britain because Britain cannot afford to pay in cash. We are going to do more for Britain, in an economic sense, than we attempted to do or could attempt to do in the last war.

THE SECOND reason is that we must take strong measures now for our own preservation. If we fail to take them, if we do not face our problem at the start, if we follow the easy way of debt and inflation, then there will be nothing but loss and ruin for all of us, whether we win the war or lose it. It will not mean merely the extinction of the wealthy classes. It will mean that the poor man will lose part or all of his little savings, his life insurance.

It is this reporter's belief that if the Canadian people understand what they are up against they will meet it. It is his belief that the men who manage Canada during the war must tell the people the whole story and let them see the alternatives for themselves. The biggest job of domestic statesmanship in Canada today is to show the Canadian people these facts and persuade them to follow the line of courage and sanity now. In the next article we shall try to show how we can follow it.

A GREAT LAWYER

From Vancouver Province
It says more than any formal eulogy of Edward Pease Davis could say that his reputation as a lawyer and advocate is still a tradition of the bar of British Columbia. For it is nearly 10 years since he was laid aside by incurable illness, and the man who had been the leader was seen and heard no more by his learned friends in the courts. Now he is gone to his long home; a famous lawyer and an eminent citizen of British Columbia.

He was undoubtedly one of the ablest lawyers of Canada in his time—and it was a long time. He was 80 when he died, and he had already had a full life when he was stricken with illness nine years ago. He had practiced his profession here for more than 30 years.

The reputation of E. P. Davis, K.C., was based on solid qualities. He had begun as a brilliant law student and he continued as a student. He knew his case when he came into court, and his thoroughness, his soundness, and his care for the best tradition of the law, were known as well at the bars of the Supreme Court of Canada and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council as here in our local courts of justice.

MAKING TEACHERS WEAR

From Nora Wain's "Reaching For The Stars."

After the death of President von Hindenburg, when Adolf Hitler accepted the position of full responsibility for the Third Reich, the army swore an oath of personal loyalty to him. In the weeks that followed this same oath was asked from every branch of the many state services—church, school, railway, customs, postal, telegraph, telephone, police, tax bureaus, and so forth, until every person drawing state pay should be so pledged. All fell smoothly into line excepting the church and a few educators. The church's position was too large to be immediately squelched. The educators had the choice of concentration camps or prompt exile.

A GOVERNMENT OF ADULLAMITES

From Toronto Star

PREMIER KING, in his address last Friday, reminded the electors that the leader who is now advocating "national government" and who has disguised the Conservative party as a "national government party" declared only last July that national government would be a menace to Canada. Reference to The Star's files confirms this charge. On July 27, the double column headline over a dispatch from Port Stanley read:

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT MENACE TO DEMOCRACY
MANION GIVES WARNING
and the dispatch itself went on to say:

"Before 7,000 Conservatives of western Ontario here yesterday, Hon. R. J. Manion rejected national government as a useful instrument in remedying economic difficulties."

Dr. Manion on that occasion was speaking of a national government of Liberals and Conservatives, which is what most Ontario people think of when the expression is used. He says now that he had in mind the dangers of such a government if formed for the purpose of amalgamating the railways—and that, of course would be one of the dangers of a national government if it were formed today. But the argument against such a government which he advanced at that time were not limited to one which might be formed for the purpose he now mentions, nor are they any less applicable in war than they were in peace. He said that a government of Liberals and Conservatives would be "a menace to democracy."

"A very real menace to democracy lurks in any fusion of Conservative and Liberal forces. Under our system there must be a government and an opposition. We, this suggested union to take place, the opposition must of necessity be formed by another party in the House. It would be formed of Socialists, Social Creditors or some other cave of Adullam group."

THIS "CAVE OF ADULLAM" expression had shortly before been used by Mr. Meighen at Ottawa to describe the Herdridge New Democracy following, which has since joined forces with the Socialists. The reference is, of course, to the cave mentioned in the Bible in which all the malecontents rallied to the support of David, and in British politics the expression has long been a familiar one. At any rate, Dr. Manion said in his Port Stanley address last July that the various "groups" would form the opposition if there were a Liberal-Conservative fusion, and—as all governments die—these groups might attain power. "We would find we had given up the substance of stable government for the shadow of government by these groups of Socialists." So Dr. Manion denounced a national government of Liberals and Conservatives because it might lead eventually to a government by Socialists, the C.C.F. and other groups.

But now—but now he not only favors a national government. He favors one which would be dependent upon the Socialists, C.C.F., and "cave of Adullam" factions, whose possible attainment of power he described only last July as a menace. For the Liberals will not join in a Manion government. They believe—and rightly—that they have a much abler leader in Mr. King. Therefore the national government Dr. Manion would form if he had the opportunity would necessarily be a government of discontent and disunity, instead of the united Liberal government which has prosecuted Canada's war effort with such success.

Name Division Arena Officials

The chairmen and vice-chairmen of the five divisions that will swing into action next week, to campaign for $95,000 for the purpose of providing the city with a modern arena, were announced today by Ernest H. Harris, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce arena committee.

William C. Moresby, K.C., president of the Victoria Bx Lacrosse Association, has accepted the chairmanship of the central division and the vice-chairman is Duncan MacBride.

William Clarke is business division chairman and his vice-chairman is Samuel Clark. The industrial-commercial division chairmanship has been taken over by Jack Barracough, with Thomas Sturges, president of the Junior Chamber, as vice-chairman. Frank Hunter is chairman of the residential section and E. G. Rowbottom, Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry, is chairman of the public services division, with J. V. Johnson, vice-chairman.

Mr. Harris reported today his committee along with campaign manager, Frank Paulding, had almost completed preparations for the drive, which will open March 12 and close March 19.

Next week the officials and workers of the five divisions will hold their organization meetings. Three hundred and fifty persons will canvass every foot of the city and district.

Arena officials today expressed their appreciation of the action of the Salvation Army in postponing its financial drive until May so that it would not conflict with the arena effort.

SCOUT NEWS

FIRST TILICUM

The group committee met last week at St. Martin's Hall, with J. Commidge presiding and H. Rogers secretary. The new scoutmaster, Winston McLahen was complimented on his handling of the Scout troop. He reported that he had seven new members. The cub master, Arnie Wratten, gave a favorable report on the progress of his Cub pack. Will Clare, Rover leader, reported on the new First Tillicum permanent Scout camp on the Matson estate off Millstream Road, where on February 14 the Rover meeting was held. Tom Anderson, having served his six months as a Rover Squire, was duly invested as a Rover, with Arnie Wratten and Fred Bealey as sponsors. After the investiture, a party attended by some 35 or 40 people was held. It is hoped that the new camp, which has been named Camp Matson, in honor of and out of gratitude to Mr. Tim Matson, will be the scene of many pleasant gatherings during the summer and throughout the coming year. At the Scout meeting held in St. Martin's Hall on February 27, two new Scouts, Gordon Cousey and Frank Garnett, were invested by the Scoutmaster, with the kind assistance of Cliff Kirchin, visiting Rover from North Quadra. Also Jack Rogers and Dick Commidge were awarded their cyclist's badges and Jack Rogers was presented with his second-class Scout badge.

ST. MARY'S SCOUTS

Thirty Scouts and leaders attended the meeting of St. Mary's Troop on Friday evening. Duty Patrol Leader Ted Clayards opened the meeting. Arnie Wratten, Rover leader, gave the first fire drill, while those remaining played a lively game. The instruction was in second class tests and first class estimation. The duty patrol leader gave a short talk on fly-fishing and fly-making.

CATHEDRAL SCOUTS

The weekly meeting of the First Cathedral Troop was held last night at the new Chester Street Hall. The meeting was opened by J. Harvey and was spent in final preparations for the official opening of the club-house March 8. Badges were received by D. Patterson, B. Canova and A. Rowe. ### AFFLUENT SCHOOL TEACHERS

To the Editor:—Dr. Weir has made it very easy to deal with his reasons for exacting the oath of allegiance from B.C. teachers because he has given so few. After three editorials have asked: Why the oath? He replies: "The relatively high average of teachers' salaries in rural districts in this province, as compared with other provinces in Canada and the states of the Union, are known to: professionally-trained and certified teachers throughout Canada and in American states." Rural school boards will doubtless remember this reply when everyone else has forgotten it. They will value this encouragement of the Minister of Education to keep rural salaries at their present level, or to cut them.

The latest available figures show that 489 rural elementary school teachers received between $780 and $800 per year; striking an average for 12 months, this is $65.83 per month. The next group up in the salary scale includes 244 teachers who receive between $800 and $860 a year. These two groups make up more than half the total number of elementary rural teachers.

Can they keep alive on less?

TEACHERS AND ALLEGIANCE

To the Editor:—It is difficult to see what valid objection anyone fit to teach can have against publicly declaring allegiance to the country in which he elects to earn his bread. Those who serve the State, especially when paid by the State, must obviously be answerable to the State. Would not any Trades Union or other labor body insist on the reliability of its adherents? Germany and Russia put into stern practice the slogan "Be loyal or be liquidated." Honest citizens deliberately sheltering under the British flag are willing to pay for such protection the small price of loyalty.

The pity is that a few semi-educated semitinkers seem to imagine that the brotherhood of man, the love of humanity, which should be the world-ideal, means simply kicking every British institution or decision. There is nothing communistic or socialistic in mere antagonism towards one section or class of humanity. It merely reveals lack of mental balance.

Probably, the present rebellion against the attitude of allegiance (for allegiance is wholly a mental attitude) is due to a misconception of the meaning of the words allegiance and loyalty. Loyalty does not mean unquestioning approval of the mistakes of legitimate authorities, national or otherwise; but it does surely mean at least to refrain from carping, useless, or untimely criticism, much more from active rebellion, at the very moment when protective authority is locked in a deadly war for the maintenance of all its citizens, their liberties, and their one chance of achieving their legitimate ideals later.

One may justifiably disapprove of one's brother's aims, and activities; but to choose the very moment when that brother's whole energies are absorbed in saving one's own house from being burnt down, to attack him, verbally or otherwise, is hardly a brotherly attitude. It does reveal total incomprehension of genuine love of humanity and sincerity of thought. Loyalty is an intrinsic quality, part of honor. Those who know it are not neither reliable friends nor trustworthy citizens. And in loyalty to one's principles, there can never be conflict with lesser loyalties.

ARENA SITE

To the Editor:—May I be allowed to express my agreement publicly with the suggestion of the Ratepayers' Association that the proposed arena site be changed, not simply from the standpoint of churches or values, but public safety.

Since Pandora Avenue has been made a through street, the Quadra Street corner has become one of the most dangerous intersections in the city. Blanshard Street corner is just as dangerous.

Cars, no doubt, will be parked all around the arena when in use. Add to this the extra traffic that will use this road in the future. Think of the street cars, buses and the thousands of people turning out on a training or foggy night. Surely the mayor and aldermen must realize if they put this over they will be creating one of the

PREDICTION

To the Editor:—In spite of the innuendo and canards which are being circulated by the opposition parties against the King government, it is very evident that they will be returned to power. Perhaps it is because of these foolish things being circulated, that it is becoming more and more apparent that the vast majority of the voting public are not going to be stampeded, but are going to elect the Liberal government, so that the country can proceed with the war as outlined by the Prime Minister and his cabinet.

There is no doubt in the minds of the electors that Mr. Mayhew will be returned with a larger majority than before. He has shown his worth in the two short years he has been our representative in Ottawa. Mr. Mayhew is not what you would call a politician—he is more of the type of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, a real statesman.

Pre-Convention Conference Soon

A conference which is of great interest around the "Y" these days is the pre-convention conference to be held in Vancouver on March 16 and 17. To this gathering will journey representatives from all departments of the Victoria Y.W.C.A., the board, committee, staff and girl members.

The two main themes of the conference will be those which will have a major emphasis at the National convention in Hamilton, Ont., from May 27 to June 1—"The Y.W.C.A. as a Democratic Organization," and "The Y.W.C.A. as a Christian Organization." Around these two subjects an interesting and profitable week-end has been planned. The guest of honor and speaker at the Saturday night banquet at the Hotel Vancouver will be Miss Louise Gates, national general secretary.

The Sunday sessions, arranged jointly by both associations, will include a chapel service and high tea. Victoria members who are in charge of arrangements representing the girls' department include: Miss Kitty Cameron, Miss Faith Sinclair, Miss Suzanne Butler, Miss Charlotte Crawford, Miss Doris Jones and Miss Dorothy Beech of the staff.

It is expected that a "discussion series" will be arranged to precede the Vancouver and Hamilton gatherings, when the questions to be discussed later may be dealt

Here's How to Relieve MISERY of COLDS Without Dosing

There's nothing to swallow. Massaged on throat, chest and back, Vicks VapoRub acts two ways at once to relieve misery of colds.

FIRST: VapoRub acts on the skin, stimulates like a warming poultice.

SECOND: At the same time, VapoRub gives off soothing medicated vapours that are breathed direct into irritated air passages.

THIS DIRECT, 2-WAY ACTION loosens phlegm, clears air passages, checks tendency to cough—also relieves muscular tightness and soreness.

Because it's external and safe, VapoRub can be used freely and as often as needed, for children and grown-ups. No wonder it's used in 1 out of 3 Canadian homes.

Weddings

BLIGH-BAKER

On Saturday evening at St. Mary's Church, Metchosc, the wedding was solemnized by Rev. H. M. Bolton, in the presence of a large number of friends, of Daisy Ena, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Baker of Metchosc, and John Bligh, second son of Mrs. H. J. Bligh and the late Mr. J. F. Bligh of Victoria.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a powder blue moss crepe afternoon dress, with matching bolero, and navy blue straw hat with forget-me-not flower trim. She carried a Colonial bouquet of roses, pink carnations and blue stocks, tied with mauve ribbon. Miss Olive Baker, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a green floral crepe dress and green felt hat, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. George Bligh, and Eric Baker acted as usher.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the new Community Hall, the bridal couple receiving under an archway of evergreens and white wedding bells. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. H. M. Bolton and responded to by the bridegroom. Music for dancing was provided by J. J. Baker, Fred Pitts and J. Parsons. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Bligh will make their home in Victoria.

HOLBORN-LAMBIE

In the vestry of the Metropolitan United Church on Saturday evening at 8.15 Rev. A. E. Whitehouse performed the marriage rites for Margaret, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Lambie, 348 Chester Avenue, and Mr. William Ernest Holborn.

The bride was given away by her father, and wore a pretty afternoon frock of Pinehurst blue silk crepe with a corsage bouquet of roses and freesias, and was attended by her sister, Miss Janet Lambie, in rose crepe with white carnations. They both wore navy blue hats and accessories. Mr. Leo Evenden was best man.

The wedding party and a few close friends were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lambie at their home, the bride and groom standing between standard baskets of plum blossom and daffodils to receive the good wishes of the guests. The bride's cake centred the supper table between vases of roses, and lighted pink candles. Mrs. Lambie welcomed the guests in a navy blue figured frock with navy blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink carnations.

Among the many gifts was a trillite lamp from the groom's associates at the Hudson's Bay Co. After a honeymoon on the mainland, Mr. and Mrs. Holborn will make their home at 582 Niagara Street.

RHODE-WARNOCK

A quiet wedding was solemnized at 8 Saturday evening in the United Church parsonage, Glyn Road, when the Rev. W. Allan united in marriage Margaret Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Warnock of Carey Road, to Clarence Albert, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rhode, Happy Valley, Metchosc.

The bride, given away by her father, wore an afternoon dress of Arcadian blue silk, and a navy blue turban trimmed with Arcadian blue flowers, with shoulder-length veil and navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink Tullis roses and gardenias. Dorothy Warnock, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid in a gown of dove rose silk, with small hat trimmed to match the gown. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and blue hyacinths. Mr. Norman Rhode supported his bride.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the happy couple stood beneath a large white bell suspended from a decorated arch. The guests were received by Mrs. Warnock, in a navy blue ensemble and hat, assisted by Mrs. Rhode, mother of the groom, in Queen Elizabeth blue with black accessories. The table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, with two silver flower bowls of violets, and white tapers in crystal holders.

Among the gifts was a silver tea service, the gift of the staff of Hudson's Bay Store, Victoria. The happy couple will shortly leave for Kelowna, where they will make their home.

Miss Hayes planned to rejoin the company in St. Louis today.

Alberni Old-timers Celebrate 59th Wedding Day

The distinction of driving a four-horse team from Victoria to Alberni in the year 1896, to haul supplies from Alberni to the Duke of York Mine at China Creek, can be claimed by Mr. Thomas Smith Grieve, who arrived at Alberni from England on the Ss. Maud on July 1, 1896, and has resided there for 44 years. With his wife, he celebrated the 59th anniversary of marital bliss on Friday, when a large number of friends called upon them at their home, Margaret Street, Alberni, to offer congratulations, their marriage having taken place at Ebchester Parish Church, Durham, England, in February, 1881.

They made their first home at Victoria, residing there six years prior to coming to Alberni. Everything was mines, or mining activities at that period; no roads, no transportation save by boat. Together they engaged in farming, and took up a section of land at Cherry Creek, which is known as the Grieve Farm, and which is now farmed by Thomas Smith Grieve Jr. Since retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Grieve have resided at Alberni, and although both have passed their 86th birthday, they enjoy excellent health and spirits, despite the march of time. Hanging on the wall over the fireplace of their comfortable home, is a framed picture of the Ebchester church in which they were married. It is built of an early English design with walls of large square-cut stone, and the roof is large stone flags, which were supported from within by heavy rafters.

Mr. and Mrs. Grieve, who can claim the added distinction of being the first couple to celebrate a golden wedding in the Alberni, have six of their seven children living, and 14 grandchildren. One son passed away as a child at Alberni. Of the others, John lives at Alberni, Walter at Winnipeg, Thomas S. on the farm at Cherry Creek. Daughters include Mrs. J. Stoth at Great Central Lake, Mrs. A. Mackay, Foul Bay Road, Victoria, and Mrs. A. D. McLeod, St. Patrick Street, Victoria. Mrs. Grieve has a sister, Mrs. J. Skipsey, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Moore, at Alberni; also a brother, Mr. W. Bulman, at Salt Spring Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Grieve Sr. enjoy the high esteem of the combined communities of Port Alberni and Alberni, and hopes are held of a great celebration next February, when their diamond wedding anniversary is reached.

3. May you, without being rude, ask a woman whose hat obstructs your view of the screen, if she would mind removing it?

LONDON — Oldest A.R.P. worker in Richmond, Surrey, Mrs. E. M. Field of Fitzwilliam House, Little Green, has just passed the first examination she has ever entered. And she is 83. The examination was in anti-air measures which, with first aid, she had to study when she joined an A.R.P. post as clerk. Since war began she has been on duty in a converted sports pavilion three nights a week, from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m., sleeping on a camp bed and as ready as any of her younger colleagues to respond to the call of the siren.

List Ready Now of Canadian Women

TORONTO (CP) — Organized by the Society for Voluntary Registration of Canadian Women, a list was made available Friday with names and addresses of 250,000 women throughout Canada who have gone on record in support of Canada's participation in the war, and who have promised their services to help in any way they can in the war effort.

The S.V.R.C.W. is under direction of Margaret Hyndman, K.C., and Mrs. Valetta Moore, expert statistician and an army of Toronto office workers and stenographers who are giving their services free in a move to mobilize the Dominion's woman-power behind the war effort. The list of 250,000 includes all ages from 16 to 60 and includes titled women and domestic servants.

Rescuer 'Dunned' For Saving Life Of Girl

NEW YORK (AP) — That this story may be understood by the Occidental mind, it must be stated that when a Chinese is snatched from the jaws of death it is not uncommon for him to be stricken from the official rolls of the living. So it was with the Chinese girl whom C. S. Vaughn, transport pilot, lifted dripping from the cold waters of the Yantze River nearly four years ago. And so it is that Vaughn is still getting bills—and paying—for the board and lodging of a soul for whose rescue he was responsible.

In today's southbound air-mail there flew a piece of parchment paper, inscribed in beautiful Chinese script, naming Vaughn for the board and keep of a soul which is, paradoxically, still among the quick.

Vaughn, who has paid these bills with growing protest, will receive the dun at Miami when he returns from his Pan American Airways Clipper run to Rio de Janeiro.

The story goes back to that day when Vaughn brought his air plane to rest at Wahn-Sein.

A strong wind whipped across the river. He called for help to weight down a pontoon and thereby control a wing, tugging at its mooring. The first volunteer was a girl, eager to speed the progress of aviation. Men followed her, though, and in the melee the girl went overboard. No one moved. So Vaughn shed his coat and dived. Nearly seven months passed before Vaughn returned to Wahn-Sein, and awaiting him was a constabulary officer. In his hand was a bill for $3.18—$3.18 ($1.59) for board and lodging one rescued soul, responsibility pilot Vaughn.

Concert Enjoyed

An enjoyable concert was held on Thursday evening at Knox Presbyterian Church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, Mr. Reginald Cox, president of the Music Teachers' Association, being responsible for the program, which was varied and well rendered by all taking part. The following took part: Vocal solos, Douglas Park, Mrs. Slater, Miss Theima Gaetz and Mrs. N. Bertucci; vocal duet, by Misses Gaetz; violin solos, by Miss Patricia Williams; recitation, "My Pocket," by little Miss Elaine Ford; and recitations by Miss Dorothy Davies, pupil of Mrs. Wilfrid Ord. Refreshments were served to the artists by Mrs. Cooper and members of the Ladies' Aid.

Fined for Refusing To Take Evacuee

LONDON — The first conscientious objector-wife, whose views on war led her, it was said, to refuse to accept evacuee children, cost her husband £8 8s at Stockport Police Court.

Her husband, Robert Edgar Lawton of Queen's Road, Cheshire, was fined £5 with £3 8s costs for failing to accept an evacuee child. Mrs. Lawton, it was stated, had written to the authorities in September: "As a Christian I have very strong views about war. I really feel I must not take part in anything to do with war."

Mr. E. Barlow, who prosecuted, said he failed to see how anyone could refuse on Christian grounds to shelter innocent children who were in danger of being injured by enemy attack.

Delegates from the Victoria Insurance Agents Association and from the Vancouver Island Outboard Association, will be heard by the City Council in committee tomorrow before the regular council meeting. On file for council consideration is a letter from the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company suggesting the city take no further action to have it post a $2,500 bond guaranteeing cleaning up of the old mill site.

Strict Training for A.T.S. Girl Recruits

LONDON (CP) — Five hundred women, Auxiliary-Territorial Service recruits, undergoing a three-week intensive training course, are finding out that the government means "strictly business" when it sets them to work.

They are quartered in a South Coast luxury hotel. They have elaborate rooms, soft mattresses, food cooked in an all-electric kitchen, a modern gymnasium, and a fine swimming pool—which so far has been used only as a skating rink.

But during their training period there are no visits from boy friends. The girls are on telephone for a date. If accepted the girls get a special pass.

The girls are trained as clerks, orderlies, cooks, guardswomen and telephone operators.

Canadian Pacific Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club will hold a 500 drive Wednesday evening at 8.15 in C.P.R. social club room, Belleville Street.

Appeal for Furniture

Into the office of the Family Welfare Association a young couple came recently asking for temporary assistance with rent until payday comes at the end of the month. Furnished rooms were all right before, but now that they have to think of four-month-old Jimmy, it's a different matter. If furniture could be found for them, they could move into the two nice unfurnished rooms which they would like to call home. Then when payday arrives, Mr. X would be able to stand on his own financial feet, and won't need help from anyone. They need all the essentials—bed or studio couch, dresser, rug, kitchen table, chairs and stove, and gifts of any of these articles would be gratefully welcomed. Phone G 2913 and cartage will be arranged.

Mr. James Douglas P.T.A. preschool study group will meet on Wednesday at 8 at the home of Mrs. H. E. Jobbins, 647 Cornwall Street. The subject to be discussed is "Rewards and Punishments" and is to be read by Mrs. H. Carstens.

FOOTBALL IN the Old Country may soon be faced with a serious shortage of players. The next call for military service, or the one after that, will seriously affect the league clubs, most of their players being in those groups. Many club managers are visualizing what the position will be shortly and are realizing that they will have to rely on boys who are still in their teens to help them out.

Many clubs who have not been fortunate enough to find promising youngsters are turning to older players, who have retired from the active side of the game, for assistance when they have a vacancy to fill. Recently two footballers who played for Scotland 16 years ago turned out for the teams of which they are now manager and trainer. One of the Swindon Town players failed to arrive at Bristol for a match and Neil Harris, the manager, who played for Scotland against England in 1924 when with New castle United, led the attack. Willie Harper, the former Arsenal goalkeeper, who received 211 Scottish caps from 1923 to 1936, kept goal for Plymouth Argyle, for whom he is now trainer, because the club was without a player for the position.

Talking of Plymouth, Rola Jack, acting secretary-manager of the club while Jack Tresadern is away on military service, believes in being prepared. It is some years since Jack, who formerly played in the forward line for both Plymouth and Clapton Orient, finished his playing career, but he has gone into strict training and is ready to play at a moment's notice should one of the team fall out at the last minute. Whenever Plymouth are playing away, from home Jack makes sure that his own gear is packed along with that of the players, for he says "You never know when it may be needed."

We quote from the Sporting News, baseball newspaper: "Despite the fact that Canada has declared itself in on the war and has been an active participant for a few months, sports are going ahead as usual in the Dominion, except at a few points. People on both sides of the border come and go freely; clubs will move from the United States into Canada and vice versa, without meeting any obstacles.

There is little to distinguish an American from a Canadian in fact, nothing at all, when sports are considered. Canadian players make good in this country, and vice versa. The rivalry between the two countries on the diamond is keen, but it is a rivalry of sportsmanship, just as it is between two cities in the same league in this country. That is the way the citizens of both countries want it, and the way it probably always will remain. Nations in other parts of the world could well learn a lesson from the example set by baseball which, among other things, helps to bind the United States and Canada in friendly relationship.

"It is pleasing to note that the Dominion authorities are encouraging, instead of discouraging, this spirit of friendly competi-

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Seabiscuit, winner of the 1940 Santa Anita Handicap and new money-making champion of the turf, may try for new victories.

It depends on his owner, Charles S. Howard, San Francisco sportsman. The decision will be made this week.

His smashing comeback victory in Saturday's $100,000 added Santa Anita Handicap lifted Seabiscuit into the hall of racing fame alongside his famed grandfather, Man O'War.

With his one length triumph in the 1940 renewal of the country's richest stake, Seabiscuit won $86,650. It put his total earnings at $437,730. The former, all-time record, set by W. S. Kilmer's Sun Beau in 1931, was $376,744.

With a chance to increase these earnings, possibly to an amount out of reach of competitors for many years, it was considered likely that Howard would keep his star in training.

SETS TRACK RECORD
Seabiscuit beat his 12 rivals in a performance that broke the track record.

It was a double triumph for Howard's feared and odds-on favorite combination, for his Kayak II, winner of the 1939 Santa Anita Handicap, ran second in a burst of speed that brought him to the front in the closing strides.

The betting handle for the handicap was $382,700.

Bays Register Rugby Victory

Hitting beautifully on all cylinders, Manager, Bob McInnes' J.B.A.A. senior rugby machine swamped the Army ruggers 15 to 0 Saturday afternoon at Macdonald Park. This placed the Bays in a fine position to retain the Barnard Cup and the city championship that goes with it which they lifted last year.

If McInnes' warriors can lift the scalps of Oak Bay Wanderers in next Saturday's Barnard Cup scrap the championship will be theirs again. The Victoria championship club represents the Capital City in the Rounsell Cup campaign for the B.C. club championship. This is a sudden-death affair.

Every department of the Bay machine was working in perfect order on Saturday, and they had little trouble beating the boys in khaki. Bays pounded many holes in the solid defence and plunged over for five tries, none of which were converted.

The Army was kept on the defensive all afternoon. Seldom did their offensives get beyond the halfway line. They did not have the light seen in their ranks a week ago Saturday, when they battered Vancouver soldiers in the opening game of the intercity series.

The score at the half stood 9 to 0, with Bill Halkett, George Langdon and Bill Thompson crossing the line and grounding the ball. Langdon and Thompson added a try apiece in the final half. Thompson did the booting for the extra points, but missed all.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES
Victoria College and Royal Navy fifteens registered victories in intermediate games Saturday.

College boys winning 3 to 0 over B.R.A. on Ian MacDonald's penalty kicks, and the Navy trouncing Oak Bay Wanderers 25 to 3.

No Challenge For The Tide
VANCOUVER (CP)—Any hopes Vancouver Reps had of tying Victoria's Crimson Tide and playing off for the McKechnie Cup faded here Saturday when the Vancouver squad dropped a close tilt 12 to 11 to Varsity.

Although Vancouver led 11 to a few minutes after half time, costly fumbles and poor tackling enabled the students to win.

Varsity led 6 to 5 at half time after Howie McPhee scored a try and Andy Johnston kicked a penalty. Hump Payne and George Biddle scored a try and a convert in that order for the Reps.

In the second half Biddle scored a try and Art Alexander a convert for Reps while Varsity added points on tries by Alan Gardner and Gerry Mason.

Alumni, Dominoes Win Grid Battles

Coach Jim Smith's smooth-functioning V.H.S. Alumni grid machine ground out an easy 24 to 0 triumph over Fairfield Blue Devils in their fourth successful game in Junior Canadian Football League play Saturday at Central Park. They have not had a point scored against them.

Lacking several of their regular players, Blue Devils, coached by Jim Skellern, showed plenty of pluck but were really no match for the Alumni. It was the second meeting of the two teams. Alumni beat the Fairfield team 13 to 0 in their first get-together.

The first game of the double-header program saw Coach Sid Anderson's second-place Dominoes squad shut out Coach Brent Murdoch's Painters' Oak Bay Bruins, 17 to 0. Dominoes beat the Bruins 5 to 0 in their first encounter several weeks ago.

Another big crowd was on hand to witness the two games which were played under ideal weather conditions although the field was thick mud in parts.

Tookes Beat Leafs In Cage Playoff

VANCOUVER (CP)—Tookes upset pre-series predictions here Saturday night when they defeated Maple Leafs, 37 to 31, in the first game of the best-of-five series of the men's Senior A Intercity Basketball League championship.

MONARCH OF THE TURF—Setting a new track record of 2:01.15 for the mile and quarter, Seabiscuit, beloved thoroughbred of North American racing fans, became the world's all-time leader in earnings by capturing the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap Saturday. It was his third attempt and climaxed a sensational comeback after a year's lay-up owing to injuries.

Violates Agreement

Shore Fined $500

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (CP)—Maurice Podoloff, president of the International American Hockey League, said last night he had levied a $500 fine against Eddie Shore, player-owner of Springfield Indians, because the latter failed to appear with his team in Providence, R.I., against Providence Reds.

Shore, who has an arrangement with New York Americans whereby he plays some games with that club, was with the National League team in New York last night.

Podoloff said Shore, a major attraction to hockey fans because of his great days with Boston Bruins, had agreed to appear at least once in every rink in the league member International American League, and that his failure to appear in Providence last night, in the last scheduled game Springfield plays in that city, violated the agreement.

SHORE SPEAKS
NEW YORK (CP)—Eddie Shore confirmed last night that he had been fined $500 for not playing with his Springfield Indians in Providence, but claimed that Lou Pleri, business manager of Providence Reds, had agreed to his playing with New York Americans instead of the Indians.

Shore said Maurice Podoloff, president of the International American League, had told him by telephone yesterday morning that it would cost him $500 if he played for the Americans against Montreal Canadiens. The American defenseman said he had told Podoloff that he was going to play for the Americans whether the fine was $500 or $5,000.

"Red Rutton (manager of the Americans) helped me out of a tough spot this season and I wouldn't have let him down for $500 or $5,000 when the team's chances for a play-off spot might have been decided tonight," said Shore. "Pieri told me when I signed with the Americans that I needn't show in Providence tonight, but apparently he changed his mind this week."

Alpines Smart In Cage Win

Converting 99 per cent of their free throws and playing brainy basketball, Coach Bill Murphy's Alpine Dairy, champions of the Seattle Community League, defeated the Dominos 39 to 33 at the Willows Sports Centre Saturday night. It marked the second straight defeat for the Canadian champions as the week previous they were set down by Seattle Savages.

By dropping through nine out of 10 tosses from the strip Alpines won the ball game as each club scored the same number of field baskets, 15. Dominos were good on only three out of eight attempts from the line. It was a fairly close game with only 15 personal fouls being called. Dominos' drawing down nine. Only one player left the floor on fouls, that being Bob Graf, big centre of Alpines. He drew three personal fouls in the first half and when he returned to the game in the third quarter was only on the floor a few seconds when pulled up for number four.

Dominos, playing without Hank Rowe, who is suffering from a bad cold, were beaten because they couldn't get in close and failed to drive through for rebounds. With a bigger ball club, Alpines pretty well controlled play and, combining brilliant ball handling with smart blocking and checking, deserved their victory. The visitors scored practically every basket, from right under the bucket and wasted few shots.

SLOW DOWN PLAY

After running up a 25 to 10 lead in the first half Alpines slowed play down at every opportunity in the final quarters and waited for openings before firing at the basket. Only in the last quarter did the Dominos outscore the visitors, canning 11 points to six for Alpines.

Ross Werner was high man for Alpines with 11 points, while Art Chapman topped the Dominos with 13.

Bill Levy, Victoria, and Buck Kennett, Duncan, refereed. Teams and scores follow:

Seattle Alpines—O'Neil 6, D. Voelker 5, Graf 6, R. Werner 11, T. Werner 6, Hilton 5.
Dominos—C. Chapman 7, A. Chapman 13, Jackson 3, Taylor, Davies 6, Baker 4, Acreman and Patterson.

Rangers Win and Lead Boston by Three Points

Davis, Katan Bout Winners

"Wee Willie" Davis, 265-pound Virginian, defeated Billy Hanson, Salt Lake City, by gaining two falls out of three in the second half of the double main event on Promoter Rock Brooks' wrestling card at the Army and Navy Veterans' Club Saturday night.

In the seventh round Hanson went for Davis with several body butts by bouncing off the ropes. In one of these he caught himself in the groin as he hit Davis and Davis seized the opportunity to knock Hanson down with an elbow punch, pick him up and slam him down on the mat and roll on him for the winning fall.

The first part of the double main event provided plenty of action and was won by John Katan of Drumheller who defeated Chief Little Wolf from Colorado.

Katan secured his first fall in the second round when after a series of damaging elbow slams he got his pet Japanese standing toe-hold and shoulder press on the Indian and made him give in. The Chief evened up the bout in the next round when he got a Indian deathlock on Katan and made him concede.

Katan gained the final fall in the fifth round when he knocked the Chief down with an elbow slam and applied the Japanese standing toe-hold and shoulder press.

Ray Hopkins, Victoria, and Ralph Stanger, formerly Kelowna, battled to a five-round draw in the first event.

United Draws With Saints

VANCOUVER (CP)—The League-leading Victoria United had a three-point advantage over North Shore United in the Pacific Coast Soccer League race as the result of their 3 to 3 tie over Vancouver St. Saviours in a close game here Saturday.

Star of the match was Jimmy Werswick, clever Victoria centre-forward who scored a hat-trick for all of the Islanders' points. Victoria played a steady game throughout.

Scoring for the Saints was done by Les Morley, Ken Lawn and Ken Encefer.

The draw gave the Victorians a handy lead over the Reds, who have played 12 games and have four more to play before the end of the regular schedule. North Shore and Victoria will tangle in one of the remaining matches.

Some 1,000 fans were on hand to watch the Saturday tilt which was played on a dry field, which made for fast play.

JUNIOR CAVEYS BEAT LADYSMITH

With Fred Ransome showing the way with 15 points to his credit, Coach Harold Turner's Caveys of Junior company took the measure of Ladysmith in the first game of the Vancouver Island playoffs, 29 to 18, Saturday night at the High School gym. At the half the Victorians had a 15 to 7 lead.

A pair of exhibition games saw Arrows, senior A men's squad, defeat intermediate A Caveys, 33 to 22, and Unities beat Cardinals, 39 to 23 in a women's fixture.

ERIC HIBBERSON WINS

In the final of the Fessy Cup played at the Uplands Golf Club yesterday, Eric Hibberson defeated Gordon Moore 3 and 2.

C. F. Smith won the first flight from L. Roach 5 and 4, while D. Fletcher took second flight honors from Cyril Penzer 3 and 1.

POLO TONIGHT
Tonight at the Willows Horse Show Building, starting at 8:30, an indoor polo match will be played.

WESTS AND CITY FAIL TO SCORE

After Victoria West and Victoria City soccer elevens had played for 90 minutes Saturday afternoon at Athletic Park, when they met in the final of the McGavin Cup series, the fate of the mayor's trophy was still undecided.

These two outfits traveled through that hour and a half without either side registering a goal.

Played under spring-like conditions before 300 spectators, the game turned out to be one of the most disappointing cup finals witnessed here for some time. It was listless, neither side showing any pep.

The first 45 minutes of play were quite dead. Both goalies had a lazy time in this session, very few shots coming their way. Wests had more opportunities, but failed to capitalize. Right-winger Joe Travis placed some nice crosses over, but they were never taken up and completed.

Play was a little faster in the final half, with the City being the more consistently dangerous team. Tommy Restell, recently injured, stayed between the sticks all afternoon for the Wests, and was called on to handle some good shots in this period of play.

West's only attacking spottily up to this time, perked up a bit in the last 10 minutes and kept the pressure on Norm Stewardson's goal for the remainder of the half, but the rebounder cleared everything away that came his way.

Bill Cull refereed.

'Y' HANDICAP WINNERS NAMED

Winners of the Y.M.C.A. Swimming Club weekly handicap series which closed at the Crystal Garden Saturday night, are: Florence Byatt and Ted Tully.

George Morgan, president of the club, presented Miss Byatt with the Gwen Bailey Trophy and Tully received the Sawley Cup.

At Chicago Rangers caught the Hawks minus Mush March, Art Wiebe and Les Cunningham and made sure of victory before a season's record attendance of 18,114. Earl Seibert sent Chicago ahead in the second but Kilby MacDonald levelled the count late in the same period. Wilf Hiller shot the winning goal midway through the third.

Meanwhile the Red Wings helped Rangers' cause by defeating Boston 6 to 3 in a wild affair at Detroit. Woody Dumart gave Bruins an early lead but

Turn Back Chicago by Lone Goal

WEEK-END SCORES

Rangers 1, Toronto 1.
Rangers 2, Chicago 1.
Americans 3, Canadiens 3.
Americans 3, Canadiens 0.
Detroit 6, Boston 3.

Everything points to terrific impact when New York-Rangers and Boston Bruins stage two meetings next week—easily the two most important games of the National Hockey League schedule.

The Rangers pulled up their socks during the week-end, after a series of in-and-out performances, and moved three points ahead of the Bruins in the fight for first place, by tying Maple Leafs 1 to 1 at Toronto Saturday and defeating Black Hawks 2 to 1 at Chicago Sunday.

Those tidy happenings left the Broadway Blueshirts well within shooting range of the title, despite the fact that they have only three games to play and the Bruins six.

So the NHL championship, which goes to the club finishing on top, will be at stake when Rangers and Bruins collide at Boston a week from tomorrow and again at New York two nights later. At the schedule's end, the top team gets the choice of where Stanley Cup playoffs are to start.

The Rangers played snugly against the Leafs before a throng of 13,846 customers. Pete Langelle, rising rapidly to big-league stardom, punched a Toronto goal in the second period, and the Rangers opened up only between that time and the moment Brian Hextall tied the score in the third.

LEAFS IMPROVED
But Leafs, with Sweeney Schirner back after a two-weeks absence through injury, showed growing possibilities for the playoffs. Only the Rangers' cautious checking and Dave Kerr's great goaltending stopped them.

At Chicago Rangers caught the Hawks minus Mush March, Art Wiebe and Les Cunningham and made sure of victory before a season's record attendance of 18,114. Earl Seibert sent Chicago ahead in the second but Kilby MacDonald levelled the count late in the same period. Wilf Hiller shot the winning goal midway through the third.

Island Has Volcanoes With Odd Names

In the Pacific Ocean, not far from New Guinea, is an island which has volcanoes with odd names. It is called New Britain, and is under control of Australia.

New Britain is not a little "rock jutting from the sea"—it has nearly as much land as Holland. It spreads out in very much the shape of a crescent moon, and has a length of about 300 miles.

Baining men of New Britain wearing high hats.

The main volcano in New Britain is named Father, and is 7,500 feet high. It has erupted in modern times. Another large volcano is known as the Mother. One morning in 1870, people in New Britain rubbed their eyes when they looked out over Baining Bay. It contained an island which had not been there the day before! The island had an area of only a few acres, but it was a wonder to have it rise out of the sea.

That island had been made in the same way as quite a number of others. A volcano had erupted the night before, and had thrown up enough lava and ashes to produce the island.

Besides the Father and Mother, there are four "child" volcanoes in New Britain. The smaller volcanoes are known as North Son, South Son, North Daughter and South Daughter.

About 68,000 people of native race live in New Britain. They are dark-skinned, almost black, and have "frizzly" hair. Many natives have been cannibals, and it is suspected that some of them carry on the practice to this day.

White men rule the island, but there are only a few hundred of them. They live together in the little city of Rabaul.

New Britain is narrow, being hardly 30 miles across. Yet there are not many white persons who have crossed it. Fear of natives is one reason, but more important is the mountain "backbone" which runs almost the whole length of the island. The "backbone" has steep sides, and it is hard for a person to climb it.

Bold travelers have made their way into the wilds now and then, however, and pictures have been taken of the natives. One such picture shows a group of men wearing extremely high hats. The hats are cone-shaped and may make one think of "dunce caps." These hats are made of bark. They are worn when the men take part in a dance which has something to do with their religion.

HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, MARCH 5

While this is an unimportant day in planetary direction it is fortunate for merchandising. The evening has a sinister aspect that seems to presage an unusual number of accidents. There is a sign auspicious for public banquets or important speeches.

Routine activities will be lucky for families today. Changes of any sort are subject to sinister portents. Although later the spring days will encourage intense love affairs and speedy courtships, this is not an auspicious date for romance. Girls should attend strictly to study or work of some sort.

There is a promising sign for merchants and manufacturers. An expose connected with contraband shipments will cause an unpleasant international incident. Commercial rackets of many sorts will be uncovered and a new recognition of honesty as the best policy will be fortunate for the neutral nations.

In several parts of the country new leaders will seek power by offering novel balms for indignity. The planetary aspects which encourage revolt against existing social conditions will affect members of political parties.

The 1940s have been long foreseen with foreboding. In August, 1942, Saturn will be in square to Mars in Virgo, a figure which existed at the outbreak of previous great wars. Again Uranus in Gemini enters adversely into the configuration. In August, 1942, Uranus will be in conjunction with Saturn and square to Mars. The year 1942 marks the completion of the 84-year cycle

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a girl of 21, engaged to a boy and we are very fond of each other, but we don't intend to marry for at least two years. My mother objects to my going out with him because she doesn't want me to marry young. Should I give up my boy friend to please her? MARTINI.

Answer: If your mother doesn't think that at 23 you will be old enough to marry she must expect you to stay single until you are so old you will have to totter to the altar on crutches. She is utterly unreasonable, and if she has no objection to the lad on the score of morals and character I think you would be very foolish to give him up just because of her whim, which is based on her desire to keep you for herself and not let you marry at all.

Tell her that in this day of sophisticated girls of 21 are older, more matured, know more about life and are better judges of what they want in a husband than women were at 40 in her day; and that, while it is awfully sweet and maternal and all that for her still to regard you as a little baby in rompers, you are definitely out of them and on your own and have a right to make the decision about your own life.

It is a hard thing for many parents to ever face the fact that their children have grown up and are men and women instead of toddling tots, and this is at the bottom of so much of the conflict that breaks parents' hearts and wrecks children's lives that goes on in so many homes.

DOROTHY DIX.

Revision Court Will Be Busy

There will be a busy time for the Court of Revision on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, judging from some of the complaints received by Returning Officer Sydney Child since copies of the precinct lists have been mailed out.

One source of complaint has been that Christian names have been spelled wrongly, or the wrong name has been added to the right initial.

This does not necessarily debar the person from voting, Mr.
Child explained, since the Elections Act provides that a person is not disqualified where his name is wrongly spelled, so long as he can be identified as the person intended. However, in cases where the wrong name entirely has been entered, application will have to be made to the Court of Revision.

The assumption is the mistakes were made by enumerators who took down only initials when they were gathering names and tried to fit names to them later. They guessed badly in many cases.

It focused some criticism,
however, on the federal method of preparing the voters' list as compared to the provincial system in which each voter must take an affidavit, and sign his name for purposes of comparison at voting time.

Another complaint has been that wives of soldiers living in the married quarters at Work Point were left off the list. Mr. Child said the enumerators got the names of wives of men who live out of barracks but it did not occur to them to get the women living there. The returning officer said military headquarters had been advised of this and the mistake will be rectified at the Court of Revision.

The Finnish community at Chase River, vitally interested in their own country's conflict, were addressed Saturday night by Alan Chambers, Liberal candidate in Nanaimo riding, who made a particular point of Prime Minister King's long efforts to preserve unity in Canada in facing the issue. Every fair-minded person would agree that the policies which had kept Canada united would keep it united in wartime.
Extreme measures used by men of extreme views would only serve to divide the country and destroy this unity. Mr. Chambers, applied to a C.C.F. claim that if he were sincere in his plan for national superannuation, he should join the C.C.F. The candidate said that he could effectively sponsor his plan as a Liberal. Mr.
Chambers will speak tonight at Royal Oak.

Nomination papers for Ronald Grantham, Ladysmith High School teacher, were filed with William Dryer, returning officer, by Walter S. Robinson of Duncan, who is Mr. Grantham's campaign manager.

Mr. Grantham spoke twice on Sunday, at Lake Cowichan in the afternoon and at Northfield in the evening, when he issued a counter challenge to the Conservative candidate. He asked the Conservative to state why he wanted Canada to exert a greater war effort, and stated that peace aims must be made clear. People had been made to believe that if only Hitler were removed all their troubles would be solved. The slogan "Smash Hitler" was dangerous because it avoided giving reasons.

"We want peace as soon as possible and will call for a peace conference. Does any other party make that pledge? The longer the war goes on, the harder it will be to get peace," he said.

At Extension-Sunday afternoon
Sam Guthrie, M.P.P. for Cowichan—Newcastle, made a speech in support of Mr. Grantham.

On Saturday night the wife of Kenneth McAllister, C.C.F. candidate in the city, went car-pooling for him at a meeting in the party's clubrooms on Boyd Street.
She spoke on the need for a national housing scheme and a change in the economic system so that unemployment could be eliminated. The other speaker was Mrs. Constance Ker of Vancouver who said that from a woman's standpoint the C.C.F. offered the chance of peace which meant life, health, work and an opportunity for young people.

The old parties, supporting a system which existed for profits, could not offer these things, she said.

At Lake Cowichan F. S. Cun-liffe, Conservative candidate in Nanaimo riding, likened Prime Minister Mackenzie King's sudden dissolution of Parliament to Hitler's dismissal of the Reich stag in Germany. He criticized

Cars were damaged but no serious personal injuries were repartment of Health reported today.

These figures, included 579 In-nese.

There were 7,905 deaths recorded, including 557 Indians, 127 Japanese and 265 Chinese. The natural increase in population was thus 3,427.

There were 7,898 marriages solemnized, and 602 divorces granted.

Of the 7,905 deaths reported, cancer and other malignant tumors accounted for 1,017; tuber-

Second Charge In Bank Hold-up

Trial of the second suspect for the armed robbery of the Victoria West branch of the Royal Bank on February 1, may proceed this week in City Police Court.

Police today swore an information charging Jack McNeil, now held by mainland authorities, with participation in the crime for which Walter McLaren has already been sentenced to seven years' imprisonment.

A warrant for McNeil's arrest was issued by Magistrate Hall immediately after the swearing of the information and it is expected a Victoria detective will be detailed this week to bring McNeil here for trial.

At present he is being held on the mainland where he faces a charge preferred against him by Vancouver police.

Middle Aged 'Vags' Problem to Court

The plight of three middle-aged men convicted of vagrancy charges presented a problem to Magistrate Hall in the City Police Court this morning.

One, an upright, square-shouldered man, who said he held a journeyman carpenter's ticket, had suffered financial setbacks since depression days. Everywhere he went he said his life seemed to be against him. He had never been in court before.
He admitted he may have been asking for handouts when arrested by Constable Thomas Stevenson, because he had a few drinks with the other two men.

A second was the recipient of a burnt-out military pension, which he was expecting shortly. It was his first offence.

The third, a man with a record of five previous convictions, said he had come to Victoria on the recommendation of doctors who treated him for gas and chronic bronchitis which he suffered as a result of war injuries. He was a former member of the famous Black Watch regiment. He said he had been accepted for relief in Victoria and was to go to work tomorrow. He pleaded for a chance, promising he would not abuse the court's confidence if it was granted.

Men usually found begging and generally classed as "vags" are younger and often their acts are suspicious, but the three appearing today presented a slightly different case.

The magistrate remanded all three cases for sentence tomorrow.

All Services Vote Special Rules

All members of the armed forces, naval, military and air, stationed here will vote under the active service regulations, according to word received by the military headquarters and Returning Officer Sydney Child.

This means their vote will be taken through their service unit, beginning March 16, and all their votes will be sent to Edmonton to be counted.

Although some of them are registered on the local voters' list they will not cast ballots in the civilian vote on March 26.

The announcement today ended a good deal of confusion caused by the fact that several Victorians who are stationed either in barracks or forts were enumerated on the main list, and were not certain how they would vote.

Under the active service rules the O.C. of each unit will act as deputy returning officer.

As each man votes he takes a declaration stating where his residence is and he then writes on a ballot the name of the candidate in that district for which he wishes to vote. The ballot is put into a small envelope and placed inside a larger envelope. Each man is instructed to post his own ballot to Capt. C.
W. McCool, M.C., K.C., returning officer for the west, at Edmonton, where the ballots will be counted.

Mr. Child said scrutineers for the different parties will have the opportunity to watch the soldiers vote and check against a man voting as a soldier and civilian as well.

The active service voting will proceed from March 16 to 23 and all ballots must be received at Edmonton by 6 on the night of March 26, the regular voting day.

Returning from Eastern Canada where he has been conducting financial negotiations for the government, Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, will reach the city Wednesday afternoon or Thursday morning. Besides arranging for the refunding of a $3,000,000 short-term loan which matures March 15, Mr. Hart has been discussing other financial matters in the east.

Obituaries

John Hamilton, 87, Had Colorful Life

John Hamilton, 87, 44 Howe Street, a resident of Victoria at intervals for 78 years, died at the Royal Jubilee Hospital today.
He was a great uncle of Lynn and Murray Patrick of the New York Rangers. Mrs. Patrick's mother, Mrs. E. Lynn of Victoria and Mr. Hamilton being brother and sister.

In 1937 he was among the honour guests of the city of Victoria at the 75th anniversary of the city's incorporation. He and Mrs. Lynn went together to the birthday party at the Empress Hotel.

LATE JOHN HAMILTON

Born in Pennsylvania, Mr. Hamilton came to Victoria in 1862 with his parents, traveling via the Panama Isthmus and up the coast to Esquimaux on the famous old Brother Jonathan.

After a few years here, during which Mr. Hamilton went to the Collegiate School, the family moved to the Cariboo, where Mr.
Hamilton's father interested himself in mining and ran a roadhouse called "Pine Grove."

When he was 14 Mr. Hamilton drove one of the Barnard Express Company's stages over the old Cariboo trail. The company was operated by the father of Senator G. H. Barnard of Victoria and the late Sir Frank Barnard.

At 18 years of age he joined a prospecting expedition to Omineca, Cassiar and the Dease River country. With him was a brother of Stonewall Jackson. Four of the party died of scurvy. At Dease Lake they found a marvelous deposit of gold nuggets, and eight years ago, at the age of 79, Mr.
Hamilton went back into that country by airplane.

For 21 years he was with the old Vancouver Coal Company, operating at Nanaimo, diamond drilling for coal. He also did considerable drilling on Mount Sicker for the Tye Copper Company.

In addition to a widow and sister, Mrs. Lynn, Mr. Hamilton leaves four sons, J. W. at Union Bay, R. A. at Long Beach, California; C. D. at Victoria and S. B.
at Duncan, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Anderson, at Whitehorse,
Y.T.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 in the chapel of Sands Mortuary, Rev. J. W. L. McLean officiating. Interment will be in Colwood Burial Park.

days. A private funeral service, conducted by Very Rev. Dean S.
H. Elliott, took place this morning in the Children's Corner of Christ Church Cathedral at 10.30, fol-

B.C. Pipers Hold Annual Reunion

The skirl of bagpipes and the thunder of drums resounded through the downtown streets Saturday night as pipe bands, reenacting the Flery Cross, converged on the Britannia Branch clubrooms, View Street, from the north, south, east and west to participate in the British Columbia Pipers' annual reunion.

Colorfully kilted pipers from Victoria, Vancouver, Seattle and up-land points gathered for this second annual event in the veterans' club auditorium, which represented a gay scene. Tartans worn represented many Highland clans.

Music, song and community singing featured the evening, but the most impressive scene was the touching tribute paid the memory of Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General. While members stood with bowed heads, Pipe-Major Donald Cameron piped "Logie of Buchan," family tune of Lord Tweedsmuir.

The late Governor-General endeared himself to every piper in British Columbia last year when he was a guest of honor at the B.C. Pipers' annual reunion. At that time he said that when he returned to the island this year, as he had planned to do, he would spend an evening with the Vancouver Island Pipers' Society.

The four bands that took part in the re-enactment of the Flery Cross were comprised of members of the British Columbia Pipers' Association; the 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish Pipe Band; the 2nd Battalion Pipe Band; and unattached and visiting pipers from Vancouver. A large crowd gathered in front of the View Street clubrooms to enjoy the musical show when the four bands met.

Piper James Watt, Vancouver, won the main piping competition of the evening. This was for an original bagpipe air. His piece was entitled "Colonel Leslie of the Seaforth."

City Hall Briefs

Possibility of including a $2,000 vote in the public works department's special projects estimates for a children's bathing pool in Little Ross Bay, was considered today at the City Hall as final work was undertaken in that department's budget. It, together with an estimate for construction of a garbage crusher, will be discussed in some detail when the council meets in estimates shortly. All major projects will be reviewed at that time, including the proposal to surface Wharf Street, Alderman Ed. Williams, chairman, stated today.

The children's bathing pool suggestion, aimed at providing warmer bathing facilities for younger water enthusiasts, has been considered before. Preliminary specifications have been worked out for the scheme which could be put into force without undue expense this year. Those supporting the plan point out the fact that conditions at the Gorge have made that water unsuitable for younger swimmers, while improvements at Thetis Lake have little value for the tiny tots who like to play in the water but cannot swim.

Seeking information to support the case for graduation of positions at the City Hall, the Civic Employees' Federation has communicated with several outside centres and has had replies to many queries on the policies adopted in other towns. It was learned today. The replies will be discussed at a federation meeting in the near future. The object of the plan is to provide a set standard of classifications for all City Hall employees.

A permit for a $1,750 four-room home at 237 Wildwood Avenue was issued by the city building inspector's department today to R. E. Newberry. E. J.
Merrett is listed as contractor.

A total of 13 tenders had been received at noon today from insurance agencies bidding for the city's business. No further tenders were accepted after noon.
Those filed up to the deadline will be considered by the City Council tomorrow.

Relaxation of regulations governing the municipal improvement program, to permit the city to extend its projects listed under that plan, is announced in a letter received at the City Hall today from E. W. Griffiths, administrator of the Unemployment Relief Branch, Department of Labor.
Mr. Griffiths stated the federal government had met the city's her parents, one brother, David, and one sister, Marion, at the family residence at View Royal.
The funeral will take place from the Thomson Funeral Home on Wednesday afternoon at 2. Adjutant C. Watt of the Salvation Army will conduct the service.
Interment at Colwood.

COMEDY QUEEN
ON PLAZA BILL

Gracie Fields, jovial queen of comedy and toast of Britain, returns to the screen at the Plaza Theatre today in a new film, in which she sings and dances as only she can. It's "Shipyard Sally," in which she is starred with Sydney Howard.

This time Gracie is the unexpected proprietor of a pub at Clydebank, the shipbuilding centre of Scotland. She sings, dances and cuts, up generally throughout the story, but two of her outstanding songs are "Annie Laurie" and "Danny Boy," which are sung as only Gracie Fields does it.

'Geronimo!' Coming To Dominion

To know what is going on in any Hollywood studio, all you have to do is glance at the day's "call sheet" which hangs just inside the gate. This lists scenes and persons or things to act in them. When "Geronimo!", the Paramount picture which is due tomorrow at the Dominion Theatre, was being produced on the Paramount stage, the call board one day contained the crisp notation: "Six Apaches with practical tomahawks." "Practical," in studio parlance, is anything that works or does not look phoney.

That everything in "Geronimo!" is "practical" is indicated by the action of the film. Hand-to-hand fight scenes show rattling rifles and battling savages and soldiers. Preston Foster, Ellen Drew, Andy Devine, William Henry, Ralph Morgan, Chief Thunder Cloud, Gene Lockhart, Marjorie Gatenon, Kitty Kelly and many others are in the cast.

ATLAS PRESENTS
'VICTOR HERBERT'

A story of a great love affair is set to the music of some of the best-loved melodies in "The Great Victor Herbert," the tune-filled romance which Paramount is presenting today at the Atlas Theatre, with Allan Jones, Mary Martin and Walter Connolly heading a large cast of popular players.

Victor Herbert, the great composer and producer of some of the biggest hits in Broadway history, appears in the picture not as a member of the love team, but as the lasting friend of the two sweethearts, Jones and Miss Martin, the man who makes them the king and queen of the show world and helps them find happiness together. He is played by Connolly, whose resemblance to the late maestro is said to be amazing.

Ever since first news came that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer was planning to film "The Wizard of Oz," screenwriters have been wondering why it took Hollywood 39 years to discover that this L. Frank Baum story, published in 1900, is excellent motion picture material.

The answer is found at the Capitol Theatre where "The Wizard of Oz" opened today for an engagement of three days. It is difficult to see how this story could possibly have been made without all of the perfection in color, sound, music, casting and amazing effects of 1939.

"The Firefly," M.G.M.'s widely heralded filmization of the triumphant Rudolf Friml operetta, starring Jeanette MacDonald, has been held over for three more days at the Oak Bay Theatre. "The Firefly" is Jeanette MacDonald's 17th musical triumph.

Here is the story of a great love that flourished during the Napoleonic War in Spain. The picture required 30 sets and a vast location in the high Sierras. Hundreds of costumed extras appear in the spectacular scenes. The music, by Rudolf Friml, is superb.

Miss MacDonald sings "Love Is Like a Firefly," "He Who Loves and Runs Away" and "When a Maid Comes Knocking at Your Heart." Allan Jones "A Woman's Kiss" and "The Donkey's Serenade."

CAPITOL THEATRE

A brilliant singing star is at the Capitol Theatre in "Balalaika," and the result is something really to talk about. She is Ilona Massey, who co-stars with Nelson Eddy.

Blonde, beautiful, and talented, the Hungarian songbird who has been kept under cover for more than a year after a brief appearance in "Rosalie" emerges as a captivating and thoroughly radiant personality who not only can sing like a thrush but can act as well.

Mr. Massey is a welcome new face. On the basis of her first major assignment she will go far.

FLEMING SHREWD
HORSE TRADER

Dogged determination to find a "woebegone" horse fitting the description of the one used by Scarlett O'Hara to escape from shell-torn Atlanta in "Gone With the Wind," coming Friday, March 8, to the Capitol Theatre, has made a shrewd horse trader out of Director Victor Fleming. Five animals of the type once known as "crownbait" were given first trips to the studio in horse trucks, as the directors discarded them successively as being too prosperous looking for the part.

Finally, "Woebegone" was cast.
But when the mare was called for her scene, some weeks later, it was found she had been given so much to eat—due to her being a bread-winner—that her ribs were nearly gone. Property men took the mare out, and when they brought her back she looked more like her name than ever.

Dark hollows had been painted in her cheeks, and a deep furrow seemed to divide each rib. Another miracle of the movies was credited to the art of make-up.

with Tyrone Power, and Rudy Vallee and Edna May Oliver head the featured cast.

The songs are: "I'm Sorry for My-

Comes," "I Poured My Heart
Into a Song" and "Back to Back,"

Rescued Schooner Crew Landed

NEW YORK (CP)—The Swedish express freighter Sagaland docked Saturday with the skipper and five members of the 175-ton three-masted Nova Scotia schooner, A. W. Chisholm, rescued after 14 days of drifting in their waterlogged craft 300 miles east of Bermuda.

The Chisholm, which carried neither wireless nor auxiliary engine, left Shelburne, N.S., Feb. 7 with a cargo of lumber for the Barbados, and immediately ran into dirty weather.

"We took an awful beating from the start," Capt. George H. Corkum said. "A week at sea and the old ship's seams began to spring. We were soon waterlogged."

Coastguard Believes Southgate Attacked

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Members of the crew of the United States coastguard cutter Unalga, back from an unsuccessful search for the British ship Southgate, said last night they believed the freighter's report of a submarine attack would be confirmed when the vessel reaches port.

They said three messages were picked up from the Southgate late Friday, the first saying the ship had been torpedoed, and the other two that she had been attacked by a submarine. The last message, 30 minutes after the first, said the Southgate was not damaged.

There was silence thereafter until late Saturday when the ship in response to a shore station said she was safe, but not to call her again.

Efficient Officer

MONTREAL—Following upon the death of T. E. McDevell, president of the Canadian Pacific Express Company, which occurred at Toronto Saturday, Sir Edward Beatty gave out the following statement:

"In the sudden passing of T. E. McDevell Canadian transportation has lost one of its most efficient officers and Toronto one of its most loyal and public-spirited citizens. It is generally conceded that Mr. McDevell was outstanding in his own profession with a knowledge of the express business in Canada equalled by few. We in the Canadian Pacific feel that we have lost a colleague and friend whom it will be very difficult to replace."

Retired Admiral Again to Serve

LONDON (CP)—Great Britain yesterday recalled five of her highest naval officers from retirement to active service under an order that those with the rank of admiral of the fleet henceforth would be on the active list for life.

This rank corresponds with that of Field Marshal of the army. It was explained that those recalled likely would have shore or other duties and would not necessarily be called upon to re-assume commands at sea.

The five admirals are Sir Henry F. Oliver, Sir Osmond D. B. Brock, Sir Roger J. B. Keyes, Sir Frederick L. Field and Sir Reginald Y. Tyrwhitt.

Sir Frederick Field is well known here, having brought the H.M.S. Hood to Victoria in 1923. He was at the time, commander-in-chief of the British Empire world squadron.

Admiral of the Fleet Sir Osmond De Beauvoir Brock was chief of staff to Lord Beatty in the battle cruiser force during the last war, and took a leading part in the Dogger Bank and Jutland battles.

Sir Frederick Laurence Field, 68, joined the navy when 13. During the Boxer rising 1900 he took part in British naval activities in China along with Earl Jellicoe and Beatty.

Admiral of the Fleet Sir Osmond D. Brock was commander of the battle of Jutland he commanded H.M.S. King George V and was mentioned in dispatches and decorated. Sir Frederick was subsequently deputy chief of the naval staff, commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean fleet, and First Sea Lord. He was placed on the reserve list in January, 1938, after nearly 54 years of service.

The name of Sir Roger Keyes has been familiar to the public ever since his famous St. George's Day raid on Zebrugg and Ostend in 1918 associated him with one of the navy's most thrilling exploits of the last war.

Admiral of the Fleet Sir Reginald Tyrwhitt, 69, was retired last July, shortly before the outbreak of war. He has had 56 years in the navy and during the last war he commanded destroyer flotillas. He carried out exploits of such daring that he became known as "The Stormy Petrel of the British Navy."

Sir Henry Oliver is 75. From 1914 to 1917 he was acting vice-admiral and chief of the admiralty's war staff. In the admiralty reorganization of 1917 he became a member of the board and deputy chief of naval staff.

In 1918 he was rear-admiral commanding the first battle-cruiser squadron. He was named vice-admiral in 1919 and in the same year was named to command the home fleet and later of the reserve fleet. He was named admiral in 1923 and admiral of the fleet in 1928.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Trend on Winnipeg Grain Exchange was weaker today with liberal selling orders outweighing good general buying.

Wheat futures prices held close to Saturday's close levels most of the session but finished 1/2 to 3/4 lower with May at 88 1/2, July 89 1/2 and October 90 1/2.

A moderately good export business in Canadian wheat was reported in private channels but regular reports confirmed actual sales of only 100,000 bushels.

Sales of more than 300,000 bushels of No. 1 hard wheat high-lighted cash grain trade. Demand for all top grades continued.

Flax was again the feature of the coarse grains pit with gains of more than two cents registered in early trade on strength at Buenos Aires. Resting orders kept oats and barley prices up.
